Proceedings of the Convention Boards

The proceedings of the Executive Board, the several Boards in joint session, and the Board of Church Polity are given in full except such routine matters and administrative proceedings as are common to all such meetings.

THE Executive Board of The American Christian Convention held its annual session in Dayton, Ohio, October 19-22, and was presided over by Rev. F. G. Coffin, President of the Convention.

Three of the members were not present:—Mr. Hermon Eldredge, who came, but was called away by telegram; Rev. W. P. Minton, who was in Japan; and Professor S. O. Albaugh, who was detained by professional duties.

The routine business and executive provisions were of the usual character and number, and would be of but little interest to the readers of THE CHRISTIAN ANNUAL.

The report of the Secretary revealed a deficit in the resources of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, which had resulted from the increased cost in all lines of its service, and also an unjustifiable indifference of our own people to our financial obligation to the Council. The Secretary was authorized to remit an additional hundred dollars to the Council, and to pay the expense of our members from the current fund of the Convention.

The facts and conditions of the Park Grove Chapel, Springfield, Ohio, were considered by the Board, and Hon. O. W. Whitelock and Rev. J. F. Burnett, were appointed to investigate the matter, and to act upon their best judgment.

A petition from the American Bible Society, that our churches be asked to include that organization in their benevolences, was carefully considered, and resulted in the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That we sympathetically endorse the American Bible Society, and recommend that our churches include this Society in their budget.

In taking such action we desire to point out to the Society that each church in the denomination is autonomous, and final action must rest with the church itself.

We recommend at the same time that requests be sent only to the more important of our churches—this in the financial interest of the Society itself.

The Convention Secretary had been supplying at Franklin, Ohio, as opportunity afforded, which fact was reported to the Board, and the following action taken:

Moved by O. W. Whitelock that the Convention Secretary be authorized to supply at Franklin Christian Church, subject to such denominational calls as shall demand his service, until such time as a pastor of the church can be secured, which, in the judgment of the Board, need not be delayed. Carried.

The report of the Convention President revealed extensive activities and profitable service during the year, and Revs. W. G. Sargent and Omer S. Thomas were appointed to confer with him in the interest of full-time service, as soon as arrangements could be made. This they did, and reported as follows:

Recognizing the highly efficient service, denominationally and interdenominationally, which the President of The American Christian Convention has rendered in his field work for the Christian Church, your committee recommends that as soon as it is possible he be urged to give his whole time to The American Christian Convention.

Professor S. O. Albaugh, who was elected Secretary for the Department of Finance, by the Convention in session at Springfield, Ohio, October, 1914, submitted the following resignation:

Dayton, Ohio, October 19, 1920.

To the Executive Board of The American Christian Convention:—

DEAR BRETHREN: I hereby tender my resignation as Secretary for the Department of Finance of The American Christian Convention to take effect at the earliest possible date that would be best for all concerned.

I do this because I am so situated that it is next to impossible for me to be with you at the Board meetings, or at the Quadrennial Convention, and it seems to me now that the office needs closer attention than it is possible for me to give it under present circumstances.

Fraternally yours,
S. O. ALBAUGH.

It was moved and seconded to accept the resignation, and to enclose with notice of such acceptance, the very hearty appreciation of the Board for the service of the retiring Secretary, and to accompany such notice with a check for fifty dollars, as a slight token of the Board's appreciation of the service rendered. Motion carried.

Mr. John Myers, of Pleasant Hill, Ohio, was elected to fill the vacancy.

Voted that fifty percent of the income from the Forward Movement to The American Christian Convention become Permanent Fund, and that the President, Secretary, and Secretary for Finance of the Convention, be an Investment Committee.

Rev. Carlyle Summerbell, who had previously been appointed to represent the Christians on the Commission on Relations with France and Belgium, brought before the Board the fact that an effort was being made by the aforesaid committee to use a million dollars for the purpose of rehabilitating the churches in France, and asked that the Convention, through its several Boards, bear its share of this amount of money. The Board authorized Rev. Carlyle Summerbell to make an appeal through the churches, in the interest of rehabilitating the Protestant Churches of France, the appeal to be made from the Secretary's office.

Voted that the Secretary for the Department of Finance be, and hereby is, instructed to remit to the Convention Secretary, for current use, all interest accruing from invested funds, without further notice, but that no part of the permanent fund, resulting from the Forward Movement, or other sources, shall be paid out for any purpose whatsoever, except on order of the Executive Board of The American Christian Convention.

The Board at its annual session in 1919, appointed a committee on Summer Chautauquas and Schools of Methods, in all sections of the denomination, and the committee submitted the following report:

Your committee begs leave to report that progress has been made during the year in carrying out instructions of this Board.

At Winona Lake, Indiana, the Eel River Christian Conference had a very strong program, with representative denominational speakers, and much merit was recognized in the general program. The Conference is now contemplating a building, costing in the neighborhood of fourteen thousand dollars, with a seating capacity of about eight hundred, with committee rooms to accommodate conferences and conventions. The conferences desire the co-operation of the boards in some financial assistance toward the erection of this building. We believe Winona Lake should become a great center for religious education and school of methods for our Middle West.

At Craigville, Mass., a strong program for a full week, was conducted, using speakers from our entire denomination. The program was strong and very profitable through all of our New England section.

The Seaside Chautauqua and School of Methods at Virginia Beach was postponed until next year, on account of the Forward Movement campaign that was on at that time in the Southern Christian Convention. It will be conducted next year as usual.

Under the general plan as heretofore carried out, a summer conference for rural pastors was carried on at Defiance College this summer, for a term of three weeks. Some forty of our pastors were there. This was an invaluable school for our active pastors, and a strong spirit was shown, asking that a summer school like that become a permanent institution.

At Palmer College, Albany, Mo., in connection with the annual meeting, the Western Christian Convention held a conference of some days, with denominational speakers, and a strong desire was shown that such a summer school for workers in that convention should be continued.

These things have been done without any meeting of your committee. They have been experiments, and have shown a strong desire, on the part of our brotherhood, for such a work or religious education to be done.

We suggest that a committee be named to carry on such work during the next year, and at that time bring a definite report to this Board. These various Summer Conferences, and Schools of Methods, should consult with the committee so named, in arranging their programs for next year.

WARREN H. DENISON, Secretary.

THE following named Boards of The American Christian Convention met in joint session, in the chapel of The Christian Publishing Association Building, Dayton, Ohio, October 19, 1920, at ten a. m.: Executive Board, Home Mission, Foreign Mission, Education, Sunday-school, Christian Endeavor, and the Board of Trustees of The Christian Publishing Association. Rev. F. G. Coffin, President of The American Christian Convention, presided, except during the time of reading the President's report, when Rev. D. B. Atkinson, Vice-President of the Convention, occupied the chair.

The devotional service was conducted by Rev. F. H. Peters, D. D., in which all present took part.

Almost all of the first day was occupied in reading the reports of the Department Secretaries, the editors, and the report of the Convention President. These reports had been printed, and bound together, so that the reader could be easily followed, and notations made for further consideration. At the conclusion of the President's report a motion prevailed, approving the report, and advising the Executive Board of the Convention to continue the President's service. In addition to the Departmental reports, the Boards heard the report of the Editor of The Herald of Gospel Liberty, the Editor of The Christian Missionary, and the Editor of Sunday-school Literature. At the conclusion of the last named report the following motion was adopted:

Moved, That it is the sentiment of these Joint Boards that additional help, and resources, be given the Department of Sunday-school literature.

A motion prevailed, inviting all those associated with the Convention, and Christian Publishing Association, not members of the Boards, and all visiting brethren, to participate in the meetings of the separate Boards which they may choose to attend, and the sessions of the Joint Board. Rev. H. A. Smith and

Rev. H. Russell Clem were appointed to bear this invitation to the proper persons.

The President was authorized to appoint two committees—Present Status of Our Denominational Work, and Denominational Objective and Appeal. The Committee on Present Status of Our Denominational Work is Rev. W. H. Denison, Rev. L. E. Smith, and Rev. D. B. Atkinson. Committee on Denominational Objective and Appeal, Rev. W. G. Sargent, Rev. J. F. Burnett, Rev. O. S. Thomas, and Rev. J. O. Atkinson.

A letter from Rev. Ernest D. Gilbert, Secretary Devotional Life Department, Forward Movement of the Christian Church, was read, and the Secretary authorized to reply.

It was a very great pleasure to the Boards, as such, and to each individual member, to welcome Rev. D. P. Barrett, missionary to Porto Rico, home on furlough, Rev. Earl C. Fry, missionary to Japan, home on furlough, and Prof. W. T. Lawrence, of Elon College, who were introduced, and accorded the privileges of visiting members.

Upon the authority of the Boards, the following telegram was sent:

Dayton, Ohio, October 19, 1920.

To the International Convention, Disciples of Christ, St. Louis, Mo.

The several Boards of the Christian Church, assembled in joint session, in Dayton, Ohio, send your Convention greetings in the confidence of a common Christian fellowship. We wish for you a Convention surpassing all previous sessions, and venture to express the hope that the common life and thought of our two bodies may continue to increase, drawing us ever closer together, until the prayer of our Lord shall be realized.

F. G. Coffin, Chairman Commission on Christian Unity, Christian Church.
J. F. Burnett, Secretary Commission on Christian Unity, Christian Church.

The report of the Department of Publishing revealed that even though the subscription list of The Herald of Gospel Liberty had been increased, that the income was not sufficient to meet the additional cost of production, by many hundreds of dollars. It was the sense of the Joint Boards that the various departments of The American Christian Convention should share in the deficit of The Christian Publishing Association, and a committee, made up of members of all the departments, and including the Forward Movement, and the Woman's Board of the Convention, was appointed, to carefully consider the matter, and to report during the sitting of the Boards. The committee reported as follows:

We recommend that each of the several Boards now assembled, and the Forward Movement of the Christian Church, obligate themselves jointly to The Christian Publishing Association for the amount needed to meet a deficit that may accrue during the year because of The Herald of Gospel Liberty, each body included to pay as follows:

Education	one-sixth
Missions	one-sixth
Forward Movement	one-sixth
C. P. A.	one-sixth
A. C. C.	one-sixth
Sunday-school	one-twelfth
Christian Endeavor	one-twelfth

The report was adopted.

The committee appointed early in the session on the Status of the Church, submitted the following report, which was adopted:

Your committee on the Status of the Church would note among the favorable features, the following:

There is an increasing morale and forward look among the ministers and churches. The Forward Movement program is meeting with favorable responses in most sections of the country. The special million dollar fund gives promise of early success, providing every church and every conference meets its full quota. Even if the full million dollars be realized, we shall not succeed in full measure, if some churches, and some conferences, fail to meet their quota. It must be remembered, however, that all five points of the Forward Movement program are fundamental, and must be embodied in our church life.

We note with joy the special training agencies for our pastors and laity, that have already begun, and for which there is an increasing desire, such as the rural pastors' conference at Defiance College last summer, the enlarged Craigville, Mass., program, the larger plans of the Eel River Conference at Winona Lake, the summer school and conference at Palmer College, in connection with the annual session of the Western Christian Convention, the Seaside Chautauqua and School of Methods at Virginia Beach, and the plans for the summer conference at Elon College. All of these agencies should be properly stressed and their importance made evident to our workers. We note with pleasure, the increase in the number of field workers, and would suggest that a wide and wise distribution of this force will add to the efficiency of the church as a whole.

It is a source of satisfaction to note that the emphasis which is being placed upon the Forward Movement program is bringing to the church a deeper spiritual life and keener consciousness of the responsibility of Stewardship as is evidenced by the increase in the regular benevolences of the church. The returns from the general benevolences, however, are not meeting the requirements of our goal of one million dollars, and there must be added emphasis upon this phase of our work by the departmental officers who have the matter in charge and by the pastors of the churches. We must reach this financial goal.

Encouraging reports have come from the colleges. The college departments are being emphasized and the minor departments discontinued, with favorable results. The campaigns for money have been held somewhat in abeyance because of the Forward Movement canvass, but are now being renewed. These campaigns for funds, and the regular benevolences of the church must be given additional consideration and these goals must be attained within the five-year period. Your committee feels constrained to suggest that the persons responsible for the attainment of these goals, ought without hesitation, push their programs vigorously, and there should be no hesitancy in doing so because of the Forward Movement canvass for one million dollars.

In canvassing the situation, we have discovered some serious weaknesses, chief of which, perhaps, is the lack of leaders—men of clear vision, adequate training, and wide experience. Such leaders must be developed in order to succeed in the work of the Kingdom. There is a lack of strong city churches, not only churches in cities, but churches with the city viewpoint, and city spirit—churches that understand the city problems and set themselves to the task of solving them. Such churches must be strategically located, churches adequately equipped for service and have pastors who are trained for city work. We believe that a definite program for the development of a few such churches, both from organization already existent, and those to be established in carefully selected cities, ought to be adopted, and persistently followed.

Since the majority of our churches are located in the rural districts, some favorable centers ought to be selected and wisely developed into efficient, progressive community churches.

For more than a quarter of a century our membership has been practically static. The program of Christ is thoroughly progressive. The commandment to make disciples has never been abrogated. The denomination ought, in loyalty to Jesus Christ, to increase its membership at a greater ratio than the population of the country increases. We, therefore, emphasize the Forward Movement goal of a net increase in the membership of ten percent annually.

In addition to the reports of the Department Secretaries, later on in the session, each Board submitted a report of its plans and purposes for the coming year. Both the Home Missions and the Educational Boards included Jireh College in their reports, and a motion prevailed, with reference to the report of the Board of Education, which was to adopt all the report, except that part which refers to Jireh College, and that the vote on that item be deferred until the Educational Department could lay the whole matter before the Board of Trustees of Jireh College, and request that Board to state definitely what they ask of the Educational Board of the Convention.

The report of the Sunday-school Board revealed its purpose of engaging Mrs. F. E. Bullock as Sunday-school Field Worker, her service to begin the first of the year, and her headquarters to be in Dayton, Ohio. The other reports were full of encouragement, and promise of energetic and intelligently planned service, along all the lines of their activities.

A committee, consisting of Revs. O. S. Thomas, L. E. Smith, and H. R. Clem, was appointed to study the question of times and arrangements for meetings, and to report during a session of the Joint Boards. The committee reported as follows, and the Boards approved the plan:

The committee suggests that reports of Departments be printed, as this year, and mailed to Board members before coming to the meetings.

There being no Publishing Board, other than the Board of Trustees of The Christian Publishing Association, the Boards voted that the Secretary of Publishing be authorized to use the five percent coming to the Publishing Department of The American Christian Convention from the Forward Movement funds to be used under the direction of The Christian Publishing Association be adopted.

The report of the committee appointed by the Executive Board of the Convention to confer with President Coffin, relative to full-time service, submitted its report to the Boards in joint session, and it was approved, and the Executive Board advised to engage the President for full-time service as early as the circumstances of his engagement would permit.

THE Board of Church Polity of the Christian Church met in its regular annual session in Dayton, Ohio, October 19-22. Rev. F. G. Coffin, President of The American Christian Convention, presided, except through one session, over which the Hon. O. W. Whitelock, President of The Christian Publishing Association, occupied the chair.

The Board of Church Polity is composed of the Executive Board of The American Christian Convention, and the Board of Trustees of The Christian Publishing Association, and has to do with the general polity of the church, especially with its publications.

The editor of The Herald of Gospel Liberty had prepared a report, which was read to the Board, in which he mentioned some communication concerning a uniting of The Herald of Gospel Liberty and The Christian Sun. It was voted that the report of the editor be referred to the Board of Trustees of The Christian Publishing Association, except that part which referred to the union of The Herald of Gospel Liberty and The Christian Sun, and that that part be referred to a special committee, and the committee, as named from the floor, was Rev. W. W. Staley, Rev. C. B. Hershey, and Rev. F. G. Coffin. Later on in the session this committee submitted the following report, which was adopted, and the committee discharged:

To the Board of Polity:

Your committee appointed to consider the question of the consolidation of The Herald of Gospel Liberty and The Christian Sun, as reported by The Herald Editor to this body, at the suggestion of The Sun Editor last summer, that such a project might be possible, begs leave to say that we are not in a position to offer any definite proposition, as the matter has had not official endorsement; but speaking for the present we may say that such an arrangement, if made on a mutual basis, would meet the approval of The Herald of Gospel Liberty.

We, therefore, recommend that such correspondence as will find out the true status of such a proposition, be conducted, through proper channels, and in the spirit of mutual interest of The Herald and Sun, so far as they represent Kingdom service.

Upon motion the President appointed Rev. Alva M. Kerr, Editor Herald of Gospel Liberty, and J. F. Burnett, Secretary of American Christian Convention, a committee to conduct the correspondence concerning the matter of proposed union.

Voted that F. G. Coffin, W. G. Sargent, J. F. Burnett, O. S. Thomas, and J. O. Atkinson be a committee on Denominational Appeal and Objective.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we approve the action of the several Boards, as approved by the Joint Boards, and that the Committee on Denominational Appeal and Objective prepare and correlate matter, and give the same to the brotherhood, through The Herald of Gospel Liberty, The Christian Sun, and such other sources as it may find advisable.

Resolved, That the reports approved by the various Boards in joint session, the proceedings of the joint session, together with the reports of the committees, be printed in THE CHRISTIAN ANNUAL for 1921.

On motion the Convention Secretary was instructed to put into the Ohio State Library all the available books, and periodicals of the Christian Church, that would in any way assist in giving information to those who might seek to know the history of our church.

The following reports are the ones that were adopted by the Boards in joint session:

FOREIGN MISSIONS

The Foreign Mission Board of the convention has studied with great care its field and problems for the year. The Board has been studying an enlarged program of foreign mission work for Japan and Porto Rico.

A special meeting of the Board was called in August with all members present and missionary Garman present, also. The Foreign Mission Secretary, Rev. W. P. Minton, is now in Japan making an extensive businesslike study of the whole field and definite actions can not be taken until the secretary returns with first-hand facts and information. We beg leave to say that Rev. D. P. Barrett, missionary to Porto Rico, and Rev. Earl C. Fry, of Japan, have both been at our session. We have secured very much information from them. All of our missionaries have reported in writing to the Board.

It was found necessary in view of the extremely high cost of living in both Porto Rico and Japan to make year end grants to our missionary workers in those two countries. Those grants were for the year of 1920.

Upon secretary Minton's return, careful study of salaries for the next year will be made.

We regret to announce the illness in the families of Rev. C. P. Garman and Rev. W. H. Martin. Their families are now in the home land but these servants of God still hold their posts in our foreign fields.

A committee from our Board visited the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Christian Convention, asking their co-operation in the enlarged program in Japan and in response to that, a committee of two from that Board, Drs. J. O. Atkinson and W. P. Lawrence, brought to our Board, a memorial from the Mission Board of the Southern Christian Convention as follows:

Resolved, That the Mission Board of the Southern Christian Convention believes that the best interest of the Kingdom could be served by the opening of a new mission in China, and that the responsibility of caring for and fostering such mission be laid upon the Southern Christian Convention and that this work be done nominally through The American Christian Convention (Mission Board). The Southern Christian Convention Mission Board to lay this proposal, as a challenge of the Kingdom, upon the Southern Christian Convention.
Signed, H. W. Elder.

After thorough discussion the resolution was unanimously adopted and it was voted that W. P. Lawrence and J. O. Atkinson attend the next regular meeting of The American Christian Convention Mission Board at Dayton, Ohio, and lay this matter before said Board.

After hearing these brethren and considering the resolution the following action was adopted by our Board and members:

Moved, That we express our great appreciation of the most splendid work that is being prosecuted by our Southern Christian Convention and that we recognize the unusual missionary zeal and liberality in men and money demonstrated by our brethren of the South, and that we further commend them in their determined desire to undertake a work carrying with it tremendous responsibilities.

Therefore, be it resolved:

1. That we receive the request from our Southern Board, presented by their committee and that we assure them of our sympathetic attitude toward their desired program.
2. That we regret the absence of our Secretary, Rev. W. P. Minton, which, according to his request before leaving for Japan, prevents any definite action at this time.
3. Pending the return of our Secretary from an extensive survey of the Japan field, we ask that a joint committee of two from each board and in addition thereto, W. P. Minton and J. O. Atkinson, make an exhaustive investigation, assembling all facts as to cost and possibilities in beginning an adequate educational work in our present Japan field and in the proposed Province in China, and that when the facts are assembled the joint committee bring these facts before The American Christian Convention Mission Board to determine the course of procedure at which time the Southern Board be asked to attend.

4. That we assure our Southern Christian Convention that they shall have a task that will challenge the best that there is in them.

W. H. Denison and L. E. Smith with Secretary Minton were named as investigation committee for our board.

Provision was made for an allowance of seven hundred and twenty dollars for Mrs. McCord, missionary home on a furlough, and the usual children's allowance for Miss Gladys McCord.

The same officers of the board were continued for the new year. It is anticipated that a meeting of the Board will be held soon after the return of Secretary Minton from his Japan investigation.

HOME MISSIONS

The Home Mission Board for the coming year has a greater opportunity for aiding churches than it has ever had before, because of the much larger income as a result of the Forward Movement. At its meeting the following churches were voted aid: Bangor, Maine, Vanderveer Park, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Church of The Evangel, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Crown Point, Dayton, Ohio; Lynn, Mass.; Muncie, Ind.; New York Eastern Conference; Olney, Ill., Church and Parsonage; Toronto, Canada; Washington; Wyoming; Albany, Mo.; Palmer College Ministers' School; Danville, Ill.; Urbana, Ill., Community Center; Haverhill, Mass.; Lima, Ohio; Defiance, Ohio.

Because of the $25,000.00 received from the Forward Movement it was decided to enter upon some forward steps by this department. There has been a desire on the part of the Home Mission Board to do some demonstration work, especially as to the possibilities of institutional church work in certain centers. The way open to take up a proposition of this kind is found in the church at Urbana, Illinois, where is located one of the largest universities in the United States. The church at Urbana has been planning for some time to build a community house in connection with its church building, in which the plan is to serve the social needs of the community as well as the religious educational needs. There are constantly a great many students in the university from sections of the State where our churches are located, and these students can be used by the pastor of the church in a great many ways along religious educational lines, social lines, and the work of physical culture. Therefore, the Home Mission Board is co-operating with a large appropriation in aiding this building.

Another demonstration work is to be put on in Haverhill, Massachusetts, in the work among foreigners there. An appropriation was made to aid in remodeling the church building for the institutional work of free clinics and a moving picture apparatus, which has already been donated by the Federation of Churches of the city of Haverhill. Miss Frieda Kirkendall, of Huntington, Indiana, a graduate of Defiance College, and a volunteer for Home Mission work, has received and accepted a call to become an assistant to Rev. Carlton Easton in the work there. Miss Kirkendall will very probably have charge of the religious educational work for foreigners, and will also do a great deal of home building demonstration.

The Forward Movement funds are to be used also in the work of church extension. It is planned that during the campaign $50,000.00 shall be set aside for a Church Extension Fund to be loaned to new church projects to aid in building.

It is also planned by the Home Mission Board that where churches need parsonages and financial assistance in building them, that the Board offer to loan one-third of the purchase price or the cost price of the parsonage at a rate of three percent interest, payable within five years or less. These loans are to be made at the discretion of the Home Mission Council. The amount to be loaned has been limited for the first year.

Field men are to be partially supported by the Home Mission Board in Maine, Ontario Conference, and the Western Christian Convention. The secretary has also been granted a substantial sum of money to be used for the purpose of extending the field work, as it is the desire of the Board to assist as largely as possible in taking care of the pastorless churches.

The Home Mission Board is planning to co-operate with the Board of Education and the trustees of Jireh College in re-opening the school and the mission work at Jireh as soon as possible, providing an agreement can be reached as to this co-operation, the decision of which will not be reached until further correspondence with the trustees of Jireh College.

The work in Western Washington has received a larger appropriation this year than has been heretofore given. The same men are to continue in the work there.

The Mission Board also planned to co-operate with the Educational Board in putting on schools for pastors at Craigville, Massachusetts, at Defiance College, Ohio, at Union Christian College in Indiana, and at Palmer College in Missouri. The Colleges will also co-operate in these Summer Schools. At a meeting of the Educational Secretary, the Home Mission Secretary, and the College Presidents a tentative curriculum was formulated. The work of securing a faculty will be begun at once.

A few churches sent applications for aid which were received following the close of the meeting of the Mission Board. These will be considered by mail and the results sent to the churches.

Communication from the Southern Christian Convention stated that the Home Mission Board of that Convention did not ask any appropriation this year because of continuing their own Home Mission work.

SUNDAY-SCHOOLS

The Sunday-school Board of the Christian Church respectfully submits the following report:

The Board has assigned special departments of the Sunday-school work through the year to the different members of the Board as follows: Rev. H. G. Rowe, Adult Department; Hermon Eldredge, Young People's Department, and General Chairman; Mrs. F. E. Bullock, Children's Department and Secretary of the Board; Rev. H. H. Short, Teacher-Training Department; Mr. F. R. Beach, Publicity, Near East Relief and Vice-Chairman of the Board; Rev. S. Q. Helfenstein, Literature Department.

As reported by your Secretary at the last annual meeting, our first task was to ascertain the facts regarding our schools, membership, location, and needs. This was a task, and while we have reports from 827 schools, with a total membership of 79,888, and we have made estimates covering nearly three hundred schools, besides the above from whom we have no definite report, yet we feel that our task is incomplete, although the most complete record we have ever had. We very much need a larger co-operation from the conference Sunday-school secretaries along the lines of securing data and promoting our work. It will be our next task to secure this co-operation. The nearest possible estimate we can now give of our schools and their membership is as follows:

Total number of schools	1,117
Total membership	94,380

GENERAL CONDITION OF SCHOOLS

We have many Sunday-schools of the highest grade which are reaching their communities and building up the lives of their pupils and are great assets to the church and community life. However, the number of such schools in proportion to the total number of our schools cannot fairly be said to be more than 25%. The great proportion of our schools are small country schools with inadequate leadership. Their maintenance and work in the communities, in which they are established, is of the highest importance and the future life of usefulness of thousands and tens of thousands of our boys and girls, especially, depends on this being done. The task of bringing vision and inspiration and knowledge and leadership into these isolated schools is a task of highest magnitude, and will never be accomplished by office work or printed matter alone.

We have, therefore, planned at this time to begin a definite field work by putting a full-time secretary into the field, and have engaged Mrs. Fred Bullock, of Suffolk, Virginia, to give her entire time to the work. She will have headquarters at Dayton, and under the direction of this Board she will act as a promoter along all lines of common interest in Sunday-school work.

NEAR EAST RELIEF

It is gratifying to report that the contributions from our schools to the Near East Relief was nearly double the amount asked. The contributions to this work in 1918-19 were a little less than $1600.00. The Sunday-school Board was asked to increase this to $2,000.00. The final figures are not all in, as the year closes, October 1, but the Near East Relief assures us that our contribution this year is well over $4,000.00, which shows that our schools can do things.

Mr. Beach, of our Board, was the representative on the Near East Commission. We have approved the Christmas offering for the Near East Relief this year, as the conditions are not improved sufficiently to warrant any let-up, and we urge that our schools receive this offering during the Christmas season or as near thereto as possible. The $4,000.00 reported does not represent the entire offering from our schools, as much has been given through other channels, such as state, county, and other benevolent societies with which our people are affiliated.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The time has gone by when we can place our children under the care of an uninstructed teacher for half an hour on Sunday morning and consider that we have done our full duty by him. More and more we are coming to realize the deep and fundamental truth underlying the statement that it is the trained child who makes the going man, and the child trained in the right way, the way he should go, by a teacher who is going that way herself, is the one who will develop into a man thoroughly furnished to all good works.

Therefore, we hail with joy the movements taking place all through our country for more and better instruction, not only of the teacher but of the pupil, as well. Several of our schools have put on Daily Vacation Bible Schools this past year, and report splendid success. We desire to urge every church to inaugurate such a school, or co-operate with one where already in operation during the vacation period of next year. We are not, at this time, prepared to approve of any particular set of books or plans, but the international Sunday-school Association, the Presbyterian Board of Publications, and the American Baptist Publication Society have put out books, all of which have been used to good advantage by our people.

We desire to call to the attention of the Board of Religious Education the Teacher-Training Program for colleges as offered by the Sunday-school Council through its Teacher-Training Department, and ask that some such course be added to our college curriculum as soon as possible.

So many seem to feel the need of a more elementary book as a preliminary to the Pilgrim Training Course for Teachers, that we wish to recommend the use of Oliver's or any standard one-year course for such work, until a Standard preliminary course is established.

April 24 to May 1, 1921, will be Children's Week through the country. We urge our pastors and Sunday-school teachers and officers to co-operate with the International Sunday-school Association in giving this work a real religious bias, that we may by so doing better understand "The Child in the Midst."

The Woman's Board has prepared a Mission Study Course for Young People's Societies and Junior Societies. We recommend its use for Sunday-school classes who desire to take up some definite missionary study.

What the Christian Church is in the next generation depends very largely upon the class of workers we train today. We therefore approve of the Summer Schools at Virginia Beach and Winona Lake; we rejoice in the work begun at Craigville this summer and request that a larger portion of time be given to the training of workers next year; we approve of the schools as conducted by our colleges, and ask that the program committees of these various activities use the members of this Board on their programs, and consult with the Board in making out such programs, and in selecting the books for courses of study.

FORWARD MOVEMENT

We recognize the value of the Forward Movement as a vital factor in the life of the Sunday-school of today, and urge that the pastors and Sunday-school workers adapt it to their field of labor.

LITERATURE

It is the sense of this Board that The Teachers and Officers Journal ought to be improved. In order to make this improvement, the Board feels that the magazine should be issued monthly. In making this suggestion we take into consideration the financial stringency of our publishing interests, and have asked the chairman of this Board to consult with the Board of The Christian Publishing Association, to see if some such plan might be worked out.

We appreciate the space graciously given by The Herald of Gospel Liberty for the Sunday-school Lesson, and feel that it is of vital importance to this work that our chairman continue to prepare this material. This Board believes that with the changes now made in the work of the Board it will be possible for him to continue this work.

FINANCES

The contributions for the Sunday-school department are a good indication of the interest awakened among our schools, and it is encouraging to report that the total contributions from regular channels this year is fully double what is has been in any previous year, while outside of the regular contributions, has been over $4,000.00 for the Near East Relief, and $5,000.00 from the Forward Movement making the total increase of finances for this year nearly one thousand percent beyond any previous year. Half of our Forward Movement funds, it has been voted, will be placed at interest, and the balance used for current expenses, which will naturally be much larger than ever before with the increased plans for work as already set out. The regular offering will be asked for this year, as in previous years, which offering may be made either annually in the month of May, or once a month, or by an every-Sunday offering.

INTERDENOMINATION CO-OPERATION

This Board has been represented by its Chairman on the International Lesson Committee, who has faithfully attended all meetings of this Committee. We have also co-operated with the re-organized Sunday-school Council and International Sunday-school Association. We were honored by having our chairman elected a delegate to the Tokyo Convention and also offered a place on the program. We keenly regret that the pressure of work at home prevented his accepting and attending.

LITERATURE

We request that a committee be appointed from The Christian Publishing Association to confer with the chairman of this Board regarding the Graded work, concerning which there is much dissatisfaction among our people.

SUMMARY

Altogether the work of this Department has increased in every line. New responsibilities have arisen, new fields of activity are being opened up. We are keenly sensible of the fact that those who give this money will demand from us an accounting, and we intend, with the blessing of God, to give an answer worthy of the cause. If our denomination is to make for itself a worthier place among the reconstructive forces of civilization, there must be a new enthusiasm for the work of the Sunday-school, and with the new and ever enlarging scope of religious education, there is a new and distinct call to every one, young and old, to take his or her place in the Sunday-school. It is the work of your Board to help them to find a place, and fit them for it.

Reports Submitted to the Several Convention Boards in Joint and Separate Sessions, October, 1920

EXECUTIVE

That this report may be as brief as possible, all routine matters are omitted. These are recorded in the book of proceedings, and are open to any and all who may care to examine them.

ECUMENICAL COUNCIL CONFERENCE

Rev. F. G. Coffin, D. D., President of the Convention, was duly elected a member of the Ecumenical Council, as planned by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

ANNUITY NOTE

Mrs. J. F. Clymer, of Hartsville, Indiana, gave the Convention two hundred dollars ($200.00), for which she holds an annuity note, drawing six percent interest during her natural life. The Department of Finance was authorized to invest this amount in Liberty Bonds, the interest accruing therefrom to be paid and credited to the current funds of the Convention.

THE WILL OF MRS. EMMA B. PHELPS

By the will of Mrs. Emma B. Phelps, of North Greece, N. Y., the Convention received $3,068.00, to be distributed as follows, which was done, the same to be an irreducible fund:

To Home Missions	$500.00
To Aged Ministers' Home	500.00
To Church Extension (or Home Missions)	500.00
To Foreign Missions	$500.00
To American Christian Convention	500.00
To American Christian Convention, for current use	568.00

THE NEW CARLISLE PROPERTY

By the will of Sarah Smith, of New Carlisle, Ohio, the Convention possessed a residence property, in that village. The Executive Board authorized the sale of same, and appointed J. F. Burnett and Pressley E. Zartmann, committee to carry out said instruction. The committee reported as follows, which was adopted:

> Your committee appointed to have charge of, and to sell, the property in New Carlisle, Ohio, which came to the Convention through the New Carlisle Christian Church, make the following report:
> According to the instruction of the Executive Board of the Convention, D. F. Akers was engaged to care for the property, to collect the rent, and to do all other needful things connected therewith until the property should be sold, or other arrangements made. He was also authorized by the committee to sell the property, and to attend to all matters connected with said sale. This he has done to the entire satisfaction of the committee.
> The property is now sold, the sale price being $2,100.00, which is considered a good price, as the property is old, and in very bad repair. Your committee recommends:
> That all expense connected with the sale of the property (lawyers fees, writing deeds, etc., the bills for which have not yet been rendered) be paid, and that in addition thereto D. F. Akers be allowed $200.00 commission, which shall cover all his expense from the time the Convention became the owner of the property.
> We further recommend that the bills and commission be paid out of the money received from the sale of said property, and that the remainder become permanent fund, to be invested, the income from said investment to be paid to the current fund of the Convention.

After deducting all expenses incurred, and anticipating a small amount that might be incurred, the Secretary turned over to the Department of Finance, from the sale of this property, $1,800.00.

BROOKLYN CHURCH PROPERTY

It will be remembered that the Convention accepted the deed to the property of the Church of the Evangel, Brooklyn, N. Y., to find immediately, that church property in New York State was taxable, when held by a foreign corporation. The taxes, amounting to more than a hundred dollars a year, were paid for a few years, during which time an effort was made to get the property back under the control of a local corporation, which has been successful. The Convention President, who was charged with the task of the transfer, writes under date of October 4, 1920:

> I am in receipt of word from W. F. Corwith that the Church of the Evangel, of Brooklyn, will be taken from the tax list. I have had the New York Eastern Conference officials make proper affidavit for exemption, which has been forwarded to Mr. Corwith, and duly filed with assurance of release.

FEDERAL COUNCIL

Our relationship to the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America remains as from the beginning, but it must be recorded that the church remains quite indifferent to the financial demands of this relationship.

We manage to pay the very modest, if not wholly insignificant amount requested of us by the Council, but the expense of our attendance must be quite largely provided for out of the Convention funds. During the year the contributions to this fund were $380.54. There is to the credit of the fund, at this time, $127.04. For the first time in seven years, the Federal Council is facing a deficit, and, while the General Secretary is averse to any appeal other than the authorized ones, yet the treasurer, and others, are seeking to find relief from the financial embarrassment by appealing to individuals and organizations for contributions. The budget of the Federal Council has increased since 1905, from $25,000.00, to about $300,000.00 a year. In the letter mailed from the treasurer's office, is the following paragraph:

> Would you be willing to attempt to secure a contribution which might possibly be done by approaching some sympathetic men of means and vision, or by securing a special church collection. If the four hundred official members of the Council could each secure a moderate contribution of this kind, it would in the aggregate be a substantial help.

The Convention endorsed the plan of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, to celebrate the tercentenary of the landing of the Mayflower, at Plymouth Rock, and appointed Revs. F. G. Coffin and W. G. Sargent members of the committee appointed by the Federal Council.

THE INTERCHURCH WORLD MOVEMENT

"The following Memorial came to the Executive Board of the Convention, from the Forward Movement Committee:

'Resolved, That we memorialize The American Christian Convention to underwrite the guarantee of 5% to the Interchurch World Movement on the asking of the Departments which will share in the Forward Movement receipts.

'Resolved, That in case of failure of any Department to meet this responsibility, the Forward Movement guarantees to assume the responsibility, deducting from such Department according to the basis of distribution.

M. T. MORRILL, Secretary.'

"The following resolution is offered concerning it:

'Resolved, That the request set forth in the Memorial from the Executive Committee of the Forward Movement be granted, and that The American Christian Convention underwrite the amount named, in favor of the Interchurch World Movement, with the distinct understanding that each of the several Departments of the Convention, viz: Home Mission, Foreign Mission, Education Publishing, Sunday-school, and Christian Endeavor, shall be responsible for the full share of the underwriting, as named by them for the amount asked for.'

"At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Forward Movement Committee of the Christian Church, Saturday, January 24, 1920, the following actions were taken:

It was voted to memorialize the Executive Board of the A. C. C. to rule that money raised through the financial campaign of the Interchurch World Movement in Christian Churches be divided on the following basis:

Foreign Missions	25%	Sunday-schools	5%
Home Missions	25%	Christian Endeavor	5%
Education	20%	Publishing	5%
A. C. C.	15%

Resolved, That we request the A. C. C. to underwrite the guarantee of 5% to the Interchurch World Movement on the askings of the departments which will share in the Forward Movement receipts.

Resolved, That in case of failure of any department to meet this responsibility, the Forward Movement guarantees to assume the responsibility, deducting from such department according to the basis of distribution.

WHEREAS, The Southern Christian Convention has memorialized the Executive Committee of the Forward Movement to increase the goal of the Forward Movement to five million dollars, and

WHEREAS, All goals previously set have been by The American Christian Convention,

Therefore, Resolved, That we recommend to The American Christian Convention that the goal of the Forward Movement be set at five million dollars—two million from the Southern Christian Convention, one million for our colleges, one million for the regular benevolences of the church, and one million special fund to be distributed according to the basis already established.

The above are therefore submitted to the Convention for action."

The above resolutions were adopted.

In keeping with the instruction of the above resolutions, the Executive Board authorized the President and Secretary of the Convention to sign the following guarantee, and forward it to the Interchurch World Movement, which was done:

"WHEREAS, Several boards and agencies of Protestant Churches of North America have secured the formation of a corporation known as INTERCHURCH WORLD MOVEMENT OF NORTH AMERICA, INC. (hereinafter referred to as Interchurch Corporation), for the purpose, among others, of conducting a campaign for the collection of moneys needed in the work of said several boards and agencies; and

WHEREAS, For the purposes of this campaign, the Interchurch Corporation has agreed to effect a loan or loans, to be evidenced by the promissory note or notes of such corporation, payable in six months, bearing interest, with the privilege of renewal for a like period; and

WHEREAS, The borrowing evidenced by such note or notes, and the purposes for which the proceeds thereof are to be applied are for the benefit and advantage of the participating boards and agencies of which this Board is one,

NOW, THEREFORE,

Resolved, That the Executive Board of The American Christian Convention, acting for said Convention, hereby guarantees to any holder or holders of the note or notes of said Interchurch Corporation the due and punctual payment of thirty-two thousand one hundred and ninety-nine dollars and ninety-five cents ($32,199.95) of the principal amount so borrowed with interest, that said Executive Board of The American Christian Convention enter into an agreement of guaranty pursuant to this resolution; that the President and Secretary of the said American Christian Convention be and they severally hereby are authorized to execute such agreement of guaranty on behalf of said Executive Board of said American Christian Convention and to deliver the same to any holder or holders of the notes above mentioned as security for said loan; that the form of such agreement or guaranty, which is hereby approved, be substantially as follows:

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that

The Executive Board of The American Christian Convention, the undersigned, in consideration of a loan to be affected by the Interchurch Corporation for the purpose of conducting a campaign for moneys needed in prosecuting the work of this Board, hereby guarantees to the holder or holders of any of the notes of the Interchurch World Movement of North America, given as security for the aforesaid debt, due and punctual payment of thirty-two thousand one hundred and ninety-nine dollars and ninety-five cents ($32,199.95) of the principal thereof with interest, and the Board further agrees that all contributions received by the Interchurch Corporation in the course of its campaign, are to be deposited in the name of the Interchurch World Movement of North America, and are to be subject to a lien in favor of the holder or holders of said note or notes, as above stated, until the same are repaid.

Provision was made for co-operating with the Interchurch World Movement, by authorizing the Superintendent of the Forward Movement of the Christian Church, in consultation with the departments of the church most vitally concerned in that particular conference, to make appointments of persons in such sections of our Brotherhood as his wisdom might dictate, to represent us in special meetings and conferences, in the hope of more closely affiliating our Forward Movement with the Interchurch World Movement. The Superintendent of the Forward Movement was notified of this action, and governed himself accordingly.

RESIGNATION OF REV. JOHN MACCALMAN

Rev. W. G. Sargent, Secretary for the Department of Education, offered the following resolutions, which were adopted by the Executive Board:

In view of the continued illness of Dr. MacCalman, and of the entire improbability of his being able to meet with the Educational Board during the present quadrennium, and in view of the increasing importance of the work of the Educational Board, and the necessity of having the widest counsel possible, I move his resignation, as submitted to the Secretary of the Department, be accepted.

That, C. E. Huff, of Oronoque, Kansas, be elected to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Dr. MacCalman.

GROVE PARK CHAPEL

In 1913 a church was organized, and a chapel erected, in the southern section of Springfield, Ohio. The work was undertaken and carried forward by the First Christian Church, of Springfield, under the leadership of its pastor, the Rev. H. R. Clem.

Since the chapel was dedicated, the families belonging to the Christian Church in that section of the city, have moved to other parts of town, and our membership there is not sufficient to keep the work growing, and the people interested, as they ought to be. The Sunday-school, which is now being carried on there, is first officered by Baptists, then Methodists, etc., until it has become only a neighborhood school, with no denominational coloring whatsoever.

These different denominations have had the free use of the building, for it was built for the community—a contribution of the Christians to the Kingdom of God—and with the hope that it would become a good, strong church. It has now passed out of the control of the Christians altogether.

The Mission Board has advised that it be sold, but knowing the splendid possibilities there, the pastor of the First Christian Church, of Springfield, has not felt disposed to take that action. Both the Lutheran Church, which has a strong Church Extension Society there, and the Methodist Church, have asked that the property be sold to them, but they are not much inclined to offer a reasonable price.

There is a debt of $700.00 on the building, which cost nearly thirteen hundred dollars to build, in 1913, and which could not now be built for less than $2,500 to $3,000. There are two lots, 40x150, deeded for church purposes. So that the property is easily worth $3,000 now. But Rev. Mr. Clem has been left to "hold the bag," and as the Sunday-school there is not now a Sunday-school of the Christian Church, he cannot go to them, and ask them to keep up the interest on the loan. Neither are they responsible for insurance, light, and coal bills, which he has paid several times himself. There are other men on the note with him, who are looking to him to see that the debt is paid, and it has come now to the place where he does not care to continue to be held responsible for the payment, neither does he want these men to feel that they must either pay it, or continue to be held responsible for payment.

Not long ago a resident of that section, who has never been over-enthusiastic about church work there, said to him, "Mr. Clem, if you are thinking of selling that property, don't sell it now, for the school board will soon build a large school building in that section, and then the chances will be much better."

The purpose of this is that Rev. Mr. Clem, and those interested with him, would like very well to have The American Christian Convention assume this obligation. It can be paid $300, $200, or even $100 per year. There is no disposition upon the part of the Merchants and Mechanics Loan Association to push payment, but of course they must know that it will be properly taken care of in a business way. There is now about $90.00 interest due, which will be taken care of by Mr. Clem, and others. In that case the property, which is now deeded to "H. Russell Clem, Trustee for the Christian Church," can be deeded to the Convention.

Rev. Mr. Clem, with those locally interested, would be glad to have you consider this matter, and to have your answer to this request as soon as possible.

FORWARD MOVEMENT REMITTANCES

The Convention has received five remittances from the Forward Movement, of $3,000.00 each. These amounts have been delivered to the Department of Finance, which was instructed according to the vote of the Executive Board.

COMMISSION TO VISIT JIREH COLLEGE

A commission, consisting of two members, had been appointed to visit Jireh College, and, after a thorough investigation, to report upon the same, and upon motion the Executive Board added another, the Rev. C. E. Huff, of Oronoque, Kansas. Rev. Mr. Huff made report, which was given to the Department of Education, and has not yet been returned.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

The American Bible Society requests that The American Christian Convention recognize the Society among its official benevolences, and give it a place in its General Budget. This request was acknowledged, and a promise given that the matter would be considered, and decided, at the meeting of our Boards, in October.

ACTIVITIES OF THE CONVENTION SECRETARY

The activities of the Convention Secretary have been of the usual character and number, except that Conference visitation was largely omitted. This was done that no time should be taken by the Convention that might be used by representatives of the Forward Movement.

During the year the Convention Secretary has supplied irregularly at Franklin, Ohio, which resulted in reviving our church there, and increasing the income to the Convention ten dollars a Sunday, minus the travel expense, and a few contributions made toward installing electric lights, printing order of service, and five dollars on a long-standing debt.

In view of the dearth of pastors, it seemed to your Secretary that in no better way could he serve the cause on the Sabbath Day.

J. F. BURNETT, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN CONVENTION—1919-1920

At the beginning of the year I entertained much uncertainty as to just how the division of the president's time between the work of his office and Palmer College would co-ordinate. The dual arrangement was not of my preference. The necessity of making an effort to comply with the constitution of The American Christian Convention, and partially meet the need out of which its requirement came, and saving the identity and property of Palmer College to our brotherhood, were the two considerations which drove me to consent to this desperate expedient. The arrangement has had advantages and disadvantages. Unfortunately, both organizations require the heaviest work at the same time.

Of results, I have nothing to say. Your already formed conclusions from the reports of your fellow workers are more trustworthy than any impressions which I may have of my own accomplishments. I can only report my efforts. You must put your own appraisal upon their value.

Because of the division of activities between the two interests, I have, with considerable conscience, kept a detailed diary of my activities for the past thirteen months, the statistical results of which are here given. I make this rather extensive and minute invoice of personal efforts with great reluctance, being prompted to do so only by the feeling that you are entitled to detailed information of the occupancy of my time under this new arrangement.

I have put in on the field and in official visitation away from home 175 days. This number would have been larger, but for six weeks of quarantine for small-pox last spring. During that period my office work was kept up with few delays.

I have visited and addressed all of the District Conventions of the denomination, viz: Southern Christian Convention, New England Christian Convention, Western Christian Convention, and Metropolitan Christian Convention. In the organization of the last I assisted.

I have attended twelve local conferences, and spoken in twenty-nine different churches. Have also attended thirty-five interdenominational conferences at which I have given sixteen addresses. These included The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, and its Administrative Committee sessions, The Council on Organic Union and its Ad interim Committee sessions, International and State Christian Endeavor Conventions, various Interchurch World Movement meetings, Presbyterian, Methodist Episcopal, Christian Union, and Disciples of Christ general meetings, and other local union groups. I have also counseled with committees, boards, and smaller executive groups to the number of twenty-eight.

The total number of addresses given was 215. They are distributed as to subjects as follows: Forward Movement, 36; Sermons, 36; Education, 30; American Christian Convention, 26; General Inspirational, 23; Christian Endeavor, 19; Missions, 15; Christian Unity, 14; and the 16 to other denominational bodies previously mentioned. The travel required for this work totaled 34,647 miles.

I have drawn in salary, $1,137.50, and expended otherwise as follows: Road expense, $562.84; Secretarial assistance, $170.55; Miscellaneous office expense—supplies, postage, telegrams, etc., $98.64. This makes a total expense of my office for thirteen months amounting to $1,969.53. I have received from the field and remitted to Dr. Burnett, $309,78. In a number of instances the collection taken after the presentation of the Convention work has been remitted by conference officials direct to the Secretary's office. I have assisted in the financial drive of the Forward Movement at seven points, at which about $12,000.00 was subscribed.

In the conferences of the Western Christian Convention one-half of my expense has been borne by Palmer College and one-half by The American Christian Convention. All funds coming to me as honoraria have been equally divided between the treasuries of the two organizations.

The experience of the year has proven to me the wisdom of the provision in the constitution as to the control of the president's time. In making this observation and those which follow, I am divorcing myself from the situation and offering the comments of a personally disinterested observer. While it has been possible to accept almost all invitations for conference meetings, except those prohibited by confliction of dates, on a half-time arrangement, there has not been time to initiate and inaugurate some things much needed. Little more than matters which automatically arise and force attention have been given consideration.

There are lines of work which would profit by official attention, if time were available for investigation and a leisurely thinking-out of plans. The experience of the year has been broad enough to indicate some very definite ways in which a president's time may be used to strengthen our denominational work. A few possible ways I mention. Any program will enlarge with its own operation. It is not to be supposed that the executive office take over all of these tasks. Some of them by nature belong elsewhere. They should be a part of the whole denominational program of which his office is the center. Five channels of operation may be utilized:

I. THROUGH THE CONVENTION ITSELF.

The church is much in need of a unification of itself. We are a scattered folk of many deflections, and, until now, there has been no lament accompanying this weakness. Instead we have almost boasted of it. We do not yet have a denominational consciousness, but we are inclined to get one. Anything, however small, which aids this is big church building. A more active and forceful centralized denominational influence with a challenging program must be the antecedent of denominational unification.

(1) The Convention should be represented in a more general conference visitation. Such visitation should be determined by need and not financial convenience, as has all too often been the case heretofore.

(2) Super-advice for better conference arrangements. Grouping or combining should be effected in certain territory. Some conferences are too small to generate enthusiasm; others are lacking in leadership. Combination might improve both aspects. Conference boundaries were fixed under different conditions than those prevailing at the present. Automobiles have removed many reasons which first determined our conference geography.

(3) Complete the organization of, strengthen and find real jobs for the District Conventions as authorized by The American Christian Convention.

(4) Consult with and aid field secretaries. Provide for a conference of all field men at least biennially.

(5) Make systematic provision for representatives at more interdenominational gatherings. To faciliate contact with and secure recognition of interdenominational movements the headquarters of the next president should be strategically located. Cultivate comity by letters, official greetings to conventions, etc. Attendance at assemblages of other denominations will dissipate a hundred erroneous impressions which detract from our larger prestige and influence.

II. THROUGH LOCAL CONFERENCES.

(1) Create a unanimity in objectives, and, so far as is wise, a uniformity of methods and standards.

(2) Correspond early to get certain features written into every conference, i. e., employ the psychology of universal thinking to get results.

(3) Secure adoption of Convention standards through conferences, e. g., Pastors' Salaries, Ordination Standards, Missionary Church Standards, Frontline Sunday-school, Superior Christian Endeavor Society, etc.

(4) Get a uniform method of transferring conference membership established.

(5) Give temporary assistance, either personal or advisory, to difficult fields. Assist in healing divisions should they occur. Help in special conference drives for purely conference enterprises, college campaigns, Forward Movement, etc.

III. THROUGH PUBLICATIONS.

(1) The president should make a larger contribution to the columns of our existing periodicals emphasizing the whole propagandic work of the church.

(2) Possibly a quarterly mimeographed letter of encouragement to our pastors, embodying a little more intimate information put in a way we would not care to lay before the whole church, urging emphasis upon special features during certain periods.

(3) Supervise the production of a larger volume of tract literature for gratuitous, or at cost, distribution. A few tracts on subjects akin to the following are needed; "Courtesies Due the Pastor," "Why and How Should a Pastor be Chosen," "Suggestions on the Plan and Administration of Conferences," "What the Christian Church is Trying to Do," "Interdenominational Courtesies," "The meaning of Denominational Loyalty," "Mechanics and Dynamics in Church Work," "What Should It Mean to be a Church Member?" "Church Officers and Their Duties," "Utilizing the Young People in the Church Program," "Yearly Classified Reading List for Pastors" (issued each year), "Special Days and How to Use Them," "What Conference Membership Should Mean," "How may Ministerial Recruits be Secured," "What Shall I do With My Life" (Appeal for Life Recruits), "A Text Book on the Christian Church." (For study as Mission Study texts).

IV. THROUGH THE COLLEGES

(1) The Convention president should make a visit at least every two years to each of our colleges to

- (a) Present the objects and plans of the denomination.
- (b) Appeal for leadership and life service, holding private conferences with this end in view.
- (c) Confer with ministerial students to direct thinking along the special lines of the denomination's need, interchurch and omnichurch programs and ideals. There is no assumption that the things here mentioned are not being done by the institutions, but a new emphasis from the highest office in the church would be of added value. The same work in all of the colleges would give a denominational esprit de corps which the separate presentation could not.

(2) Keep an office list of all students preparing for the ministry and all prospectives, maintaining a helpful touch with them through correspondence.

V. THROUGH CHURCHES AND MINISTERS.

(1) Operate a bureau of general encouragement. We have made little official effort to discover new talent and faithful work and recognize it.

(2) Promote group rallies among churches, enlisting the strength of one to aid the weakness of another.

(3) Develop Efficiency Institutes in churches, or groups of churches, in which their field will be studied and analyzed, the church resources surveyed, weakness discovered and remedied, and training given in the official tasks of the church.

(4) Aid pastors and pastorating.

(5) Build a card index of both churches and pastors until all of the data to answer any question which would arise may be at hand.

Before closing this report I desire to record what has come into my heart, increasingly, during the last year of contact with our brethren in all sections. we have a background of loyalty represented by the larger number of our church about which there can be no doubt. In my judgment our people need but to be shown a way of service and they are ready for it. Every official contact with our brotherhood has cheered my heart, stimulated my faith, and kindled my ambitions anew. F. G. COFFIN.

Albany, Mo., October 11, 1920.

HOME MISSIONS

We are glad to be able to report that while achievements are not what we would have them, in every way there seems to be a growing interest in the Home Mission work of our church. This is manifested both by the way in which we are having the co-operation from every section of our field, and also by the way in which we are receiving larger support for the work.

Last year the total net receipts for home missions from all sources was $21,201.38. This year the amount received from all sources aside from that which was received from the Forward Movement amounts to $25,129.43. We have received from the Forward Movement during the year $25,000.00, making a total for home missions of $50,129.43. That is an increase of $28,928.05 or excluding the amount received from the Forward Movement, an increase of $3,928.05.

This seems interesting to us because of two reasons. First some people feared that the financial drive of the Forward Movement would be detrimental in its effect on the regular offerings, yet we have made the biggest increase that has ever been made aside from that. The other is that we have approached as closely as we have to the goal set by our department in its askings to the Interchurch World Movement, which was $67,000.00 for this year.

A great deal of credit is due to the Woman's Board for the fine financial showing that we are able to give this year, as the receipts from that source were $6,106.12.

CO-OPERATION

One of the reasons for the enlarged interest in the home mission work is the larger interest that is being taken in church work in general as a result of the work of the Interchurch, the Federation of Churches, and the Home Missions Council, and also in the Forward Movement in our own church. While the Interchurch seemed to have failed in a sense, the fact that we have been shown our power as well as our weakness, is of inestimable value to the progress of the church. It may have seemed to set back church unity, but I believe that it has gone far toward establishing the absolute need of church unity. The emphasis of the work of the Home Missions Council this year has been on the mission of the church to the community, so that community and a community program has led to localities planning and thinking of a united program of their churches. We are more and more being asked to participate in united programs for the church because of the absolute necessity of making a united front in the progress of the Kingdom's demands. If we are to conserve the results of the work of the Interchurch at all we will have to work with the Home Missions Council and with some of the state church federations. While we are so small in comparison with some of the other denominations we must keep in line with them in the support of the union movements so that some time the voice of the Christian Church, with the principles which they are working to, will be heard.

Our co-operation with the interdenominational movements along the lines of home mission work, while they may not make a great showing, will bring greater results in comparison to money invested than any other work we may do. As a church we have gotten together in the Forward Movement Program in a larger way than we have ever been able to get together before. Our home mission work has received better recognition because of this and we are able to look forward to excellent service for our church because of our uniting on a great program for the Kingdom. This co-operation I believe is best shown in the work that has been done in conjunction with the Educational Board in the work at Jireh, Wyoming.

JIREH

Application was made to the Educational Board at the annual meeting last year for $100,000.00 for Jireh College from the Forward Movement funds of that Board. It was decided at the meeting of the Joint Boards that a committee of two, representing the Home Mission and the Educational Boards, should be appointed to visit the field and make an investigation, and to report to the Boards the advisability of placing the money into the work at Jireh. Later, upon my own motion, the Executive Board of the American Christian Convention added another member to the committee, Rev. Clarence Huff. The member representing the Home Mission Board was Rev. C. B. Kershner, and the Educational Board Rev. H. A. Smith, D. D. The visit was made by the committee and at a meeting of the two Boards in June they brought a report which was discussed thoroughly. The committee had not only looked over the field, but had interviewed leading citizens of the state including the Governor and one of the senators.

A consensus of opinion was that there is a need for the school at Jireh and also for the home mission work as the two cannot exist separately. However, the Educational Board, wholly because of the lack of funds, decided that it would be impossible to make the grant of the money asked for by the college. Home missions has paid toward the work of the school as well as to the church work of the Wyoming field during the year. This they were willing to do again. Dr. Atkinson, who had the responsibility of the opening of the school, did not believe there would be enough support for the work and so made no arrangement for the faculty and opening of the school. However, before time for the opening and before Dr. Atkinson had left the field, the Educational Board made an offer of $3,400.00 for the work for the coming year. This with the amount that the Home Mission Board offered made the amount $4,500.00. But this did not come in time for the work to go on then, so that Dr. Atkinson has left the field.

Rev. Josiah Watson is still doing some work for the Home Missions there, and so far as I know that is all that is being done. Our Home Mission work in Jireh is so closely allied with the school work that it seems to me to be necessary for us to still work together. There is a great need for a Christian School in Wyoming and we should not allow it to die.

By the instructions of the Joint Boards, Home Missions and Education, I tried to secure the co-operation of the Home Missions Council in the school there. The reply of the Executive Secretary was that they could not function in school work at all. The matter is, therefore, at a standstill at this time. I think, however, that we should at this meeting take steps toward continuing the work there in some form.

SUMMER SCHOOL FOR PASTORS

Another educational enterprise of the Home Mission Department was that of the summer school at Defiance College. I believe that the greatest need of the Christian Church of today is for better leadership in her churches. The function of the Home Mission Department as interpreted in the work of the larger denominations, is to make most efficient the established churches as well as to establish new ones. The larger Boards employ Efficiency Experts who visit the fields to show the churches how to put on more efficient programs. They also have Rural Life men for bettering the work of the country churches. We, therefore, believe that we should do all that we could for the betterment of the work of the pastors.

The Interchurch Movement has planned to put on schools for Rural Pastors all over the country. At the meeting of the Town and Country Committee, of which I am a member, I asked for some of the schools to be placed at our colleges. I was enabled to secure one for Defiance College. Our Board offered to pay all of the railroad fare and the half of the tuition and room rent of the pastors who would attend one of these schools, especially the one at Defiance. The college furnished a part of the faculty and the Interchurch was to furnish others. The Interchurch had closed that kind of work before our school was put on, but the men came on anyway and the Methodist Home Mission Board paid those except the ones furnished by the State University Extension work. Twenty-nine of our men were in the school at Defiance and we sent one of our men to the school at Auburn, New York. All of the pastors who were present were enthusiastic in their appreciation of the good they felt that they had received in the school.

Palmer College also put on a conference for pastors. While somewhat different in form from that at Defiance, it was designated to make more efficient pastors. I was permitted to be there and speak along the line of work for the rural churches several times. Our Board also contributed financially to the support of that work. The Board not knowing just what amount we would need for the school work voted to allow me to use $1,500.00. The total cost of the schools to the Board was $700.84.

PASTORS AT LARGE

Another plan that we have been trying to push wherever we were able has been the appointment of men in the territories of conferences, states, or conventions whose duty it will be in having oversight of the pastorless churches, securing pastors and aiding the churches in putting on the Forward Movement program. In short, to be a field secretary and an efficiency expert to better our church conditions as to leadership.

In this interest I have secured a Mission Board in the Western Christian Convention and through them we are to aid in the support of a field man for that territory. I believe they already have definitely planned for a man for that field. The New England Board has arranged with Rev. Donald Hurlburt for the Maine territory. Dr. J. N. Dales has been asked to take that work in Canada. The Eastern Indiana Conference has called a man for that conference, as has the Eastern Ohio Conference. The Southern Ohio Conference has had Rev. A. G. Bagby devoting a part of his time to the field work in their conference during the last year. The New Jersey Conference is looking for pastor-at-large for their work. The Miami Conference took action toward appointing a field man for their conference as recommended by their Laymen's Forward Movement Committee. I believe that our Board should offer to pay dollar for dollar for pastors-at-large in the fields because of the opportunity to thus care for the large number of churches which are now without pastors.

ALIENS IN AMERICA

Special emphasis is now being placed on Americanization by all of the Mission Boards. The prediction that at the close of the war there would be quite a falling off of immigration has not been fulfilled. The aliens are now coming faster than before, so that Ellis Island is being taxed constantly, and they are bringing with them the old world problems. They are also returning by the thousands, yet in less numbers than coming. We as a denomination have been doing very little toward ministering to these people. I have had to report to the statisticians each year that our work for foreign speaking people is really negligible.

During the year Rev. Carlton Easton of Haverhill, Mass., has volunteered with his church to take up a work among the Alien groups in that city, if he could secure the support of the Home Mission Department. The Board at its meeting in June authorized me to start the work. We have so far not placed much money on it, but Mr. Easton is making a start and we have asked Miss Frieda Kirkendall to go to Haverhill to become his assistant to have charge of the religious educational work there. This promises much more than any work of this character has hitherto done in that we have the full support of the church and also the Federation of Churches of the city of Haverhill, of which Mr. Easton is the Secretary. This organization has purchased a moving picture machine and presented to the work there. Mr. Easton has made a survey of that section of the city and has found need for work among the Italians, Lithuanians, and Pollacks. The latter, however, are very largely loyal to the Catholic Church so that our work will be more among the other two groups. We are not planning to start in a big way but to grow into the work as fast as possible.

The outlook for our Hungarian work in the Brooklyn Church is not so favorable because of the failure on the part of some of the Hungarian leaders to stand by the work and also because that church is now without a pastor. The committee for that work in Brooklyn and the New Jersey Conference, however, is putting forth every effort to secure a pastor and keep the work going.

WESTERN WASHINGTON

Our work in Western Washington is doing very nicely under Brother Loucks, at Montesano, and the interest in church there is growing. The progress of the church is somewhat difficult because of the unstable conditions connected with the logging business. Many of the loggers only remain in one section a short time. Therefore, the congregation of our church which is made up largely of men connected with the logging business is necessarily somewhat unstable. However, Brother Loucks is able to keep the church on a good par with other churches of the city.

The work of Mr. Caldwell has been enhanced very greatly with the use of the automobile. He is now able to cover a very much greater territory than formerly. Having been a logging man himself, he appeals very much to the men in the camps and regularly visits a number of the camps. He has now organized a new church in what is known as North River Section. This church is called the Brooklyn Church. So far Brother Caldwell's work is being done independently although the Home Missions Council has planned for a more united work in that region. Since beginning this report I have a letter from the General Secretary of the Home Missions Council asking the cooperation of our Board with the work in Western Washington. I believe that we should co-operate with them there, but that first there should be an investigation of the manner in which they would allow Mr. Caldwell to work. At the meeting of the Interchurch in Washington Mr. Caldwell was recognized as an expert in logging camp work and his counsel was very much sought after. If we can allow him to be used in a larger field I think our Board should make that contribution to the general logging camp work.

NEW FIELDS

It has been a question in my mind as to whether our Board ought under the Forward Movement to enter many new fields when there is such a great need for leaders in the fields already begun. However, I believe that the policy of the Southern Board in establishing strong work in larger cities will mean a great deal to the future of our denomination. The Eel River Conference has made a survey of the opportunities for entering into the work at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and believe that a church there should be undertaken. There is a real need for a Christian Church in Edinburg, Indiana, and perhaps if the right man could be secured who could begin the work on a large program in Indianapolis, as quite a number of members of the Christian Church could be found scattered through that city. There are probably other cities where we should establish Christian Churches and yet I believe before this is done very careful consideration should be given to the opportunities for enlargement in other fields. The difficulty is more that of leadership than anythng else at the present time. Wherever a new work is begun by a strong leader he will have to be withdrawn from some field where he is now doing an important work. It, therefore, seems to me to be more wise to enlarge our work in some of the places where we already have a good nucleus for the church. The church at Columbus, Ohio, is appealing to the Board for money to enlarge its plant so that it may do a community service. Urbana, Ill., is also asking for a large appropriation to build, that they may undertake a much greater community service. I believe there are other cities where with some encouragement from our Department, churches might be so enlarged as to command notice by the larger interests of the cities where they are located. Too often we have made our program so small and built in such a small way that we have not made for ourselves a prestige so that we had equal opportunities with other churches. Therefore, I believe a policy of enlarging our work in strategic centers would be well for us to follow.

PARSONAGES

One of the greatest needs of our country church is the building of parsonages, so that men may be located on the field and have pastoral oversight of the church on six days as well as preach in the pulpit on the seventh. We have application for aid for the building of a parsonage at Danville, Ill. That is the only application at the present time. It seems to me it would be well for us to establish some basis like paying $1.00 for every $4.00 raised by the church or one for every $10.00, the amount to be regulated according to the needs as seen by the Home Missions Council. I am making further recommendations as to detailed appropriations to churches to the Home Mission Board.

FRANKLINTON COLLEGE

At a meeting called in Washington early in the spring, the Board of Control decided to ask the closer co-operation with the Afro-Christian Convention in the control of Franklinton College. The Afro-Christian Convention was asked to elect an Educational Board, this Board to nominate the officers of the College, then to meet in the regular session of the Board of Control in June to plan for the conduct and policy of the school.

I visited the Afro-Christian Convention held at Raleigh, N. C., and placed before them some of the ideas for which I believe the College should stand. Following the Convention the Board of Control met with the Educational Board at Franklinton and the appropriations were made for the coming year. The following officers were elected: President, Rev. S. A. Howell, D. D., Dean, Rev. George D. Avant, D. D. The Afro-Christian Convention plans to place a very substantial part of their Forward Movement fund into the work of the College. They pay half of the salary of the President and a share of the salaries of other teachers. The school work is to be conducted very largely by Dr. Avant, while the President will have charge of the executive and financial interests of the school.

It was believed by the Board of Control that the development of the negro race in the South had come to such a place that the best interests of that race would be served by placing the school largely under the control of the Negro leaders. However, the Board of Control has not surrendered its control as to the election of officers and the investment of monies in the institution and the control of the property. We are hoping for excellent results from the plan which has been started. The President, Dr. Howell, has already reported a fine interest on the part of the people of his race.

CONFERENCE VISITATION

During the year I have visited quite a number of our Conferences and have assisted in the work of the school at Defiance and the Pastors' Conference at Albany, Mo. I also gave a course of lectures on "The Church and the Community" to the Craigville Conference.

I am able to see an enlarging interest in our Home Mission Department. Also a better recognition of the Christian Denomination in the interdenominational circles. OMER S. THOMAS, Secretary.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

To the subject of missions, whenever it is mentioned in connection with the work of The Christian Church, the name of Edward K. McCord is inseparately linked. After years of efficient and faithful service in Japan, he met with this Board a year ago as the Acting Secretary of Foreign Missions, and as such he carried forward the work of this department with amazing skill and splendid results, until he was stricken in the midst of his work in April last. As we begin this report, which deals largely with the work which Dr. McCord accomplished, we pause a moment in admiration and respect for one whom we had learned to love not only as an efficient official of the church, but as a friend and brother. To him, whatever progress has been made during the last year is due in an immeasurable degree.

Immediately upon the death of Dr. McCord, your secretary left his college work, which was so near completion that he was able to graduate, and took charge of the Foreign Mission office. As might be expected, the work has been somewhat difficult, owing to the unusual circumstances attending his entrance into office, but the support of the church behind him has very materially decreased the burden and made the work, though extremely hard, very pleasant indeed.

Since the Secretary will be in Japan at the time this report is read, it must of necessity cover only the ten months of the year, from October 1, 1919, to August 1, 1920.

OUR MISSIONARIES

During the year, two new missionary families have been sent out—Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Martin sailing for Porto Rico in February and Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Q. McKnight, sailing for Japan a few months later. Both these families have already shown splendid progress in their work and have greatly strengthened their respective missions. Mr. and Mrs. McKnight are loccated at present in Tokyo where they are studying the Japanese language. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are located at Santa Isabel, Porto Rico, where they are planning to very greatly enlarge the work. We regret to say, that Mrs. Martin has had considerable difficulty in becoming acclimated, but we feel confident that within a few months she will be able to overcome this difficulty and go on with the work to which they have consecrated themselves. We are glad to note that Miss Stacy is already developing a splendid work in the kindergarten at Tokyo, though she has been in Japan only about a year. We feel that in these new workers the Church is greatly blessed. Rev. E. C. Fry and Rev. D. P. Barrett and family are at present on furlough and each is planning to secure some additional preparation for their future work on the field. We believe this a commendable step. Rev. C. P. Garman made a flying trip home in the summer to look after the interests of Mrs. Garman and the children who were compelled to come to the United States on account of the illness of the only son, Phillips. After properly caring for their welfare, Brother Garman planned to return to Japan to continue his work alone until the time of his furlough set for the spring of 1921, and he is no doubt at his task as you read this report. The Woodworths and Miss Williams are glorying in their new fields of labor, the former at Sendai, where a great number of converts have been made during the past year, and the latter at Ponce, P. R., where she is developing a work that bids fair to become far-reaching in its effects upon the lives of the young people of that island. The reports of the missionaries had not all been received at the time of this writing.

UNION WORK

In union enterprises the Christian Church has been given recognition. We are definitely connected with the Union Seminary in Porto Rico, the Foreign Mission Secretary being a trustee by virtue of his office. Not only are we linked with the Committee on Co-operation in Latin America, but with a number of union endeavors in Japan as well. It is our belief that in certain of these lines, there is a large field of usefulness for the churches jointly engaged and that we should embrace these opportunities to propagate the evangelical faith by united effort. We co-operated to the utmost in the Interchurch Movement and though the movement as such is no more, we feel that the principle involved is an abiding and commanding one that needs to be fostered more and more, and we have gladly shared in the financial responsibility involved, insofar as we had pledged ourselves to do so.

OUR FUTURE PROGRAM

A called meeting of the Board was necessitated by the visit of the Secretary to the Japan field, and at this meeting, held August 4 and 5, Brother Garman was invited to present information concerning the Japan field. The matters acted upon at that time are covered by the minutes and it will suffice here to say that forward steps were taken in regard to proper increased allowances for our missionaries in view of the continued high cost of living in both Japan and Porto Rico. A resolution was passed looking to the better preparation of missionaries especially while on their first furlough. Action was also taken looking to the active prosecution of the enlarged missionary program of the Christian Church, and it is with this particularly in view that the Secretary is studying the Japan field at this time. It was decided to call a Board meeting upon his return to settle fully some questions regarding the enlarged program.

Among other things we must carry forward our building operations as rapidly as possible. Rev. Martin has been authorized to push the building of the chapel at Santa Isabel, but inability to secure a contract for the same has held it up temporarily. We hope this may be completed before the next annual meeting. Some $3,800.00 of the estimated $6,000.00 has been raised, mostly by the young people, under the efficient leadership of Miss Carrie Robison, and we are confident they will succeed in raising the desired amount. The Irvington, N. J. Church this year raised a thousand dollars for the purchase of property in Arus, P. R., but as we have as yet been unable to buy, the money is being held for that purpose.

It has been impossible to purchase suitable land for the proposed mission home in Tokyo, but it is becoming more and more imperative that this be done within the year. A considerable sum is on hand for the purpose but not nearly enough to buy the land and build the home at the prevailing high prices. We would urge the church to bestir herself and take care of this at once.

At Tsukidate, a preaching place in the Northern Japan field, a suitable house and lot has been purchased and repaired at a cost of $1,650. This amount should be properly cared for by the board at this session. This, together with the sending of the McKnights and the Martins, the building operations at Tokyo and Santa Isabel, are properly classified as Forward Movement enterprises.

Until the return of the Secretary, and the report of the special committee appointed to make recommendations concerning the enlarged work in Porto Rico, it is impossible to outline an intelligent program. It is possible however, to act upon the matters above mentioned and upon the regular budget of the two fields, which embrace quite largely the work we should do this coming year.

FINANCES

Finances for part of a year are, of course, incomplete and we shall not attempt a detailed statement at this time. Through the regular channels, not including specials, we have received during the ten months, $24,826.83 as against a similar total for the twelve months preceding of $28,511.63. In addition to this we have received to August first, ten thousand dollars from the Forward Movement and $11,884.39 in specials. In the short time I have to prepare this report I cannot go into a detailed account of disbursements, as in the midst of the year's work we often advance money for certain work with the understanding that it will be cared for by some church before the year closes. The complete report of receipts and disbursements will be in your hands from the Treasurer ere you read this.

We have received and paid out in specials this ten months, as follows:

	Received	Disbursed
Dogenzaka Building Fund	$ 347.48
General Mission Home	1,344.26
Girls' School	262.50	$ 297.50
Japan Building Fund	5,423.63	7,550.00
Japan Theo. Student	50.00
Japan Consumptive Relief	15.50
Kannari Chapel	154.00
Porto Rico Mission Home	560.00
Santa Isabel Chapel	1,431.26	100.00
Sendai Orphanage	472.50	491.01
Santa Isabel Equipment	802.28
Young Peoples' Porto Rico Work	5.00
Arus Chapel, Irvington Church	1,000.00
Total	$11,864.39	$8,488.51

Including amounts on hand October first, we now have on hand in the various funds as follows:

Dogenzaka Building Fund	$ 347.48
General Mission Home	1,344.26
Girls' School	30.00
Japan Building Fund	13.32
Consumptive Relief	15.50
Kannari Chapel	154.00
Porto Rico Mission Home	1,349.50
Santa Isabel Chapel Fund	3,728.50
Sendai Orphanage	1.27
Santa Isabel Equipment	820.28
Young Peoples' Porto Rico Work	5.00
Total	$ 7,809.27

Of course these totals will be changed ere you meet, but they serve to give some idea as to how our people are responding. The annual report of the Japan and Porto Rico missions will also show how much each has on hand at the close of their conference year, which amounts add to the totals given above.

We believe one of the most vital phases of our missionary work is missionary literature and we urge our leaders to do more writing upon this subject of missions. We hope to be able to carry out a very definite program of missionary propaganda during the coming year and will welcome suggestions most cordially.

We hope to be able to become more closely allied with Conference Mission Secretaries through whom we believe we should logically work.

Just at present we seem to be undergoing a change which, though a trifle hard to grasp fully just now, will in a short time, we trust, enable us to push our work with renewed vigor. We urge every member of our Zion to study our Foreign Mission work and to pledge the strongest kind of support in order that it may succeed and thereby glorify our common Lord.

WILSON P. MINTON, Secretary.

CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY

At the Mission Board meeting last October our lamented Dr. McCord was elected editor of The Christian Missionary and was serving in that capacity at the time he was stricken in April. The excellent character of his work has been recognized throughout our brotherhood and needs no further comment at this time, except to say that the issues of The Christian Missionary from October 1919 to May 1920 will ever stand out as abiding memorials to his painstaking, efficient and eloquent service.

Upon the death of Dr. McCord, Dr. M. T. Morrill kindly consented to finish the work on the May number, which was about to go to the printer, and the present editor assumed charge with the June number. The material for the May and June numbers was quite largely prepared by Dr. McCord before his death.

Although the August number was mailed before the editor started for Japan, this report must be confined to ten months of the year, as statistics for August were not available at the time of his leaving. Dr. Morrill has kindly consented, at the request of the Board, to edit the magazine until my return which will be about the last of December. All the detail work connected with the subscription lists, etc., will be carried on by my secretary.

An average of about thirty-three hundred (3300) copies of The Christian Missionary were printed each of the ten months with a subscription list averaging about thirty-one hundred (3100). The receipts from subscriptions amounted to $1,032.39 and the cost of publishing amounted to $1,529.99, leaving a deficit for the ten months of $497.60.

The Christian Missionary has been continued at the old size of twenty-six pages and at the old cost of fifty cents per year. As compared with its contemporaries we believe this is a very low price, and yet we are not prepared to say what would be the effect if the price were increased. One thing must be kept clearly in mind—that the magazine is not published to make money nor even to pay its own way, but it is published for the purpose of sending out missionary information and inspiration. As such, we believe we have a right to feel that it is serving a very large purpose in the missionary enterprise of the Christian Church. If to increase the subscription price would mean to decrease the number of subscribers, the primary purpose of the production would be thwarted. The editor respectfully recommends that a committee be appointed to study thoroughly the question of increased size and price, the committee to report its findings to the full Board.

We believe in the power of the printed page and we believe even more in the power of the illustrated page. If our few months service has taught us anything, it is the fact that the well illustrated magazine reaches the most people for permanent good. It is our conviction that even though we had to increase the deficit each year by a considerable sum over what it is at present, it would enhance the value of the magazine as missionary propaganda to develop more fully its illustrative feature. To do so to any great extent, would mean to either increase the size of the magazine or decrease the length of the contributed articles. It is perhaps within the province of the proposed committee to suggest which would be the better.

The editor would most heartily commend the splendid workers who have helped to produce The Christian Missionary from month to month. Time and space forbid us to mention them one by one as we would like to do, and we can only say here that it has been a source of unusual pleasure to have such loyal support as they have constantly given. Beginning with the July number, a new department was added known as "Our Southern Women's Work," and we believe it has already shown its worth to the work of our cause at large.

We believe in propaganda and we would urge that more of our brethren whom God has specially endowed with the gift of writing well should use our columns for the spread of missionary literature. We also feel that a department of general missionary methods in the church and its departments could well be added and we urge our missionary pastors to write us of the plans being used in their churches.

W. P. MINTON,
Editor and Publisher.

THE FORWARD MOVEMENT

FOREWORD

Dr. Charles L. Goodell recently said:

> For a successful campaign in the field, every general makes a careful plan, and every army wheels to victory around the drill-sergeant. The captains of industry are men who take an extended purview of their work and adopt an accurate and far-reaching method and plan.
> The church must be s wise in its greater task for the eternities, as are men in the challenge they face for business or battle. Machinery without power is useless, but power without proper machinery is wasted. It clarifies a man's vision and fires his faith to plan means for a desired end. Methods forestall waste, methods economize time and men, and make surer and quicker dividends of service.
> The organization which ought to have most of intelligent, intensive and extensive method is the Church of God. Then man who ought to have a comprehensive plan is the pastor to whom hundreds are looking to find a way in which they may best express themselves for the service of God.

The Forward Movement organization has endeavored to so labor and lead that there should be a real forward movement on the part of our people. We have desired that all our people should know something at least of the needs of the world for Christ and the church in these days that are freighted with such responsibility, and that they should come to feel their responsibility to give Christ, His gospel, and the church, to human souls. We have tried to help our church face the "greater task for the eternities." We have sought to have our church's vision clarified, her faith fired, and simple plans offered through which she could effectively give herself in service to God.

STRENUOUS WORK

That this has been a strenuous year our workers will agree. We gladly bear testimony that our men have not spared themselves. Through heat, cold, ice, and sun, day and night our men spared not themselves. It was on Monday following a week of strenuous campaigning in Illinois that our Brother McCord was so suddenly stricken. When the Interchurch Movement was planned, our officials saw at once that it represented our position throughout our whole history, and threw themselves into it to give all that we could give, and to avail ourselves of all the help that would come from so great a co-operative movement. Our men took their places in national, state, county, and community service and with credit carried on. When it was decided that the united financial canvass should be made in April, we summoned some of our strong leaders for three months of field work. We asked them to not come and tell us why they did not do it, but to come and tell us how they did it. Rev. W. J. Hall had just resigned his field of labor, and we persuaded him to serve as Campaign Director for Ohio, also Rev. F. H. Peters to serve in the same capacity in Indiana, and Rev. H. G. Rowe in Illinois. No men ever did more loyal and faithful service for our church than did they. We wish to express our thanks to Greenville, Ohio, and Danville, Illinois, churches for releasing their splendid pastors for those three months. Many other pastors and laymen, both men and women, for lesser periods of time, and on short notice, and at inconvenience, have responded in a way that has been most reassuring, and that has made the heart of our executive officers rejoice. Let your superintendent take this occasion to say that we have many most faithful, loyal, and devoted workers, who may be counted upon to the limit.

THE FINANCIAL OBJECTIVE

From the first our Forward Movement has been a five-fold program:

a. Devotion, deepening the spiritual life of the whole church;

b. Evangelism, developing a soul-winning atmosphere throughout the church and adding at least fifty thousand new members to our church;

c. Religious Education, training and developing our whole church and enlisting its youth;

d. Missions, doubling our present mission work at home and abroad;

e. Benevolence, teaching stewardship, and actually raising funds for the kingdom.

Under this last point the amount for the five years was set at a half-million dollars. As we began to work at that part of it, the Committee felt that the amount should be raised to two million dollars. This was approved by the Convention. Then the brethren of the Southern Christian Convention felt that they could do that alone and asked that they have the privilege of raising it, and suggested that the remainder of the church raise at least three million, making the goal five million. Such a goal was also approved by the A. C. C. Board.

One million of this is to be raised through the regular benevolent channels of the churches and conferences in the five years, 1918-1923.

One million of this is to be raised by our colleges and schools for endowment in these same five years, according to the plans of said colleges and their officials. In this million all new church buildings are to be counted as a part of the million.

One million of this is to be raised in five-year subscriptions beginning with the date of the subscription.

When the fall conferences are over, then we shall begin an effort to tabulate the actual amount now raised in the regular benevolent channels of the churches.

On September 30, our schools and colleges, Defiance, Palmer, Union Christian, and Starkey, reported that $226,261.00 had been pledged on their endowment. The Presidents and their trustees are all at work on their campaigns now. We are now in process of gathering the amount that has been raised for new church buildings, which counts on this million.

On the special five-year subscription million, $760,450.52 have been raised in cash and pledges. Of this amount, $133,978.46 have already been paid in.

In the Southern Christian Convention the two million dollars has been classified as follows, in round numbers:

Special mission campaign	$125,000	now over subscribed;
Elon fund	375,000	now over subscribed;
Regular channels, five years	250,000
Church extension, five years	500,000
Special campaign	750,000	$533,882.20 now subscribed.

DEPARTMENTS

It was found advisable and important that a person should be elected to co-operate with the Superintendent in developing each of the several departments of the Forward Movement program. The following brethren were thus chosen:

Secretary Department of Devotion, or Spiritual Life, Rev. E. D. Gilbert, Fall River, Mass.; Secretary Department of Evangelism, Rev. R. C. Helfenstein, Dover, Delaware; Secretary Department of Religious Education, Mr. Hermon Eldredge, Erie, Pa.; Secretary Department of Life Recruits, Rev. Willoe J. Hall, Dayton, Ohio, Secretary Department of Stewardship, Rev. J. O. Atkinson, Elon College, N. C.; Secretary Department of Tithing, Rev. E. A. Watkins, Lima, Ohio.

No secretary for Missions was chosen, since there is an executive officer for Home Missions, an executive officer for Foreign Missions, a mission board, and a Woman's Mission Board, already at work on that line.

These brethren were chosen because of their special fitness for their particular department, and are serving without compensation, the Forward Movement bearing the actual expenses of the department. They are doing definite and splendid work, creating literature, speaking at conferences, and with groups of workers, writing articles for the church papers, carrying on much correspondence. They have issued some very fine literature for their departments.

REV. WILLOE J. HALL

Brother Hall did splendid service voluntarily in the New England campaign. He was called at the close of his pastorate at Franklin, N. H., to serve three months as Campaign Director of Ohio. His services were needed so badly at the close of that term, and his services had been so acceptable, that he was kept in the field until September 1, when he was employed permanently as Campaign Director, or Field Secretary for the Forward Movement. He has brought his family to Dayton, and is now giving his best effort to carry out the full program of the Movement in co-operation with the Superintendent. The headquarters force now consists of: Superintendent, Warren H. Denison; Campaign Director, Willoe J. Hall; Bookkeeper, Miss Margaret Mumma; Stenographer, Miss Thelma Hartman.

THREE EQUAL FINANCIAL GOALS

The program is, that one million dollars is to be raised for benevolent work in the five years through the regular departments and channels of the church; one million dollars is to be raised in five year subscriptions; one million dollars is to be raised by our colleges for endowment funds (including new church buildings). That means that the three funds are to be equal and that every church and every conference will need to raise equal amounts in the five years for the three objectives. To reach this goal let me say that the regular departments of the church have strenuous work before them and need to put forth redoubled energy. All the departments and our colleges need to join in developing the liberality of our people. No department should be partially inactive, or neglect stressing its financial needs and aims because of the special million canvass that is going on. One of the greatest needs our people have is that of a spiritual revival of giving. Their faith has not been large in a multitude of instances. Many five-year subscriptions are being paid-in, in full, during the first year. The other years of the five they will be equally able to respond to the calls of our church. Our people need to make these gifts. Hundreds of them are paying out for the church in this first year all they thought they could give in five years. Their vision and faith were not large enough. If we fail to cultivate and enlarge that spirit which has already been shown, the reaction upon the individual will be disastrous. We owe it to the spiritual life of our people to push for enlargement in every department of our church life now. The Forward Movement executives are seeking to help indirectly in securing both of these other million dollars and as soon as this special million dollars (and enough more to pay the expenses and allow for shrinkage) is secured, we want to render our assistance in obtaining the full objectives and goals of the whole movement.

THE WHOLE PROGRAM

The entire five points of the program are now being urged with all our power, both in public address, in the printed page, and through correspondence from the office. The superintendent and his co-worker, Brother Hall, have attended more than twenty conferences since the conference season opened in June. Many others of our splendid Forward Movement workers, as Brothers Coffin, Eldredge, Peters, Rowe, Helfenstein, Pleasant, Simon Bennett, and others who have directly represented the Movement, have stressed the following matters at all the conferences:

1. Put on the whole program in the church, organizing it into the "group" system, and put into practical work the sub-committees in the groups, explaining very definitely the duties and work of the Forward Movement committees and of the "group" men and women.
2. That the financial campaign must be completed for the special million at the earliest possible minute, and that the full quota of every church and every conference is needed to reach the goal.
3. All our pastors and workers need to show every Christian the important and tremendous need that is now upon them, and help them to see their responsibility for Christian service and Christian giving in this crucial hour of history.

We urge upon you, the official representatives of the departments of our church life, to take these three messages, and to summon your people to this important work. The world is looking for the Gospel message. There must be no delay for only Christ and the church can meet humanity's need and confusion.

THE HERALD OF GOSPEL LIBERTY

We are very glad to say that The Herald of Gospel Liberty has rendered a most valuable service in the Forward Movement work. The editor and business manager have shown the heartiest co-operation. The editorials touching on the Forward Movement have been most accurate and helpful. The Superintendent has been given full opportunity to present the work of this Movement as though it were a regular department of the church. Every effort has been made to follow the wishes of the Superintendent in the publicity and propaganda work as well.

Wherever The Herald of Gospel Liberty has been read in the homes of our people there has been no argument necessary to rally those homes to the Forward Movement challenge. We take this occasion to say that the Superintendent, and all of his co-workers, have done everything in their power to help place The Herald in the homes of our people. We have subscribed for and sent 4,652 copies of The Herald for three months into selected lists of homes where The Herald was not taken, at an expense to the Movement of $2,326. We believe that the Publishing Department of the Convention should bear a part of this expense, as the Department is a recipient of the Forward Movement funds, and as this work is a very important publishing work, and was the means of introducing The Herald into thousands of homes where it was not being read, we are therefore asking that department for an amount of at least $700, which is quite a bit less than one-third of the expense.

EXPENSE OF THE MOVEMENT

The Treasurer of the Movement, Mr. J. O. Winters, reports that the expenses of the Movement from its beginning, to September 30, 1920, have been $24,820.87. You will please bear in mind that the Movement has been carried on at a time when the expenses in every department have been the highest. Never have printing, labor, travel, postage, and office supplies been so high as during this war period. We have shown every possible economy, and rejoice that the rate of expense has been so low, it being only a fraction of what is considered a fair rate of expense for any ordinarygoing concern. It must be borne in mind, however, that the expense from this time on will, in all probability, show a slight increase, since the work yet to be done must be carried on in a more intensive way, and with a longer educational process, and to the remote territory of our work, and with smaller relative returns. The fragments must now be gathered up, the barren places cultivated, and prices in our line, covered by our work seem not to be decreasing as yet.

WHAT THE FORWARD MOVEMENT IS ACCOMPLISHING

This is more difficult to put into words than are figures and finances, for they may be definitely stated; yet, we regard that the finances are not the most important results that have been accomplished. Some of the things stated here are the opinions of the brethren who are qualified to speak and have spoken through letters, field notes, and in addresses. Other things, no doubt, suggest themselves to you.

a. A new, united forward look by our whole people.
b. A unity of organization, both practical and simple.
c. It is finding and already developing unknown workers, both laymen and ministers.
d. It is uniting our forces for more efficient service.
e. It is summoning a larger number of life recruits to our work.
f. It has helped to rebuild many family altars;
g. There is a wholesome, reassuring tone among our folks. One has put it this way: Heretofore, we have peeked around the corner and watched the others do it, and now we are out in the work with a feeling and spirit of achieving, and that we are actually in the great tasks with others.
h. It is unifying our conferences for co-operation, and causing them to adjust dates and plans for larger work.
i. In practically every conference where the Forward Movement has had a thorough campaign, they have planned larger things for themselves at the next session; churches that have made the canvass, put on the full program, gone over the top in their quotas, have undertaken local work of much larger vision.

The Forward Movement has been worth all that it has cost in time, money, hard work, in the enlarged vision that has already come to our people, and we are determined to carry its message, inspiration, and helpfulness into the weakest, smallest, and most remote churches and conferences.

FUTURE PLANS

a. Put on the full five-point program in every conference and church.
b. Develop every department of the Movement: Spiritual Life, Evangelism, Religious Education, Life Recruits, Missions, Stewardship, Tithing, until the whole church is permeated with their atmosphere, and the goals are reached: 50 educated, trained life recruits annually from our churches, 5,000 prayer covenants signed, 10,000 tithers enrolled, 50,000 new members received.

c. Complete the standard form of organization in all the churches.
d. Encourage the budget system and better financial plans in all the churches and conferences.
e. Keep right on, steadily seeking to have every church make the canvass, and to help just as many churches as possible to reach or exceed their quotas.

The following data is necessarily changing constantly, and is, therefore inaccurate; however, it will serve to give a general idea of accomplishments and of territory yet to be cultivated.

	Quota	Raised	Churches over the Top	Churches with No Report
Maine	12,000	9,347.50	....	1

MISCELLANEOUS

We are now thoroughly convinced that the Forward Movement is of God.

We have more faith in our people than we have ever had before.

We believe that our people have needed for a long time a Stewardship revival, and outstanding, challenging, spiritual tasks.

We would urge upon all representatives of any departments or lines of work in our church, that they do not seek to advance their department by minimizing any other line of work.

That the Forward Movement was very fortunate in the beginning in designating that all collections should be made from headquarters, rather than through local agencies.

That all of us urge everywhere that all pledges be sent in without delay to headquarters.

That the treasurer disburses funds to the seven departments of the church as soon as twenty thousand dollars accumulates in his possession.

That the funds collected in Canada are sent to Mr. H. B. Samells, and deposited in the bank there to my credit until exchange becomes more nearly normal, or otherwise ordered.

OUR REQUESTS

That you give your most earnest prayers, heartiest co-operation, and active help in accomplishing the desired ends.

That you provide us with enlarged office room.

That you designate some person in the C. P. A. Building, whose duty it shall be to keep an up-to-date, accurate list of active pastors, with the churches they serve.

That you help us in our follow-up-system by prompt notice of the death of any subscriber in your church, that his pledge may be presented to the proper persons as an obligation against the estate.

WARREN H. DENISON, Superintendent.

HERALD OF GOSPEL LIBERTY

It is with no little satisfaction that your editor is able to report that, so far, his tenure of office has been blessed with the most universal and unbroken spirit of fellowship and good will, far beyond anything which had been anticipated. There has been no strife or hostility from any quarter whatever, and it is remarkable how few expressions of disappointment or dissatisfaction have come either to the editorial or business offices. Practically every letter of that nature has been published in the communication department of The Herald, so that you know both their number and their type. On the other hand, there have come scores of letters of commendation, many of them from our leading men in every section of the country. And perhaps never before in the history of the paper has it received so much recognition from outside of the church and been quoted so frequently by other periodicals. All of this, together with the fine spirit of comradship which prevails uniformly between all of the officers and printers and workers housed in the Publishing House, is a matter of gratification and encouragement.

That there is and must be some dissatisfaction with the paper as it is at present managed, is inevitable. No periodical could possibly please all classes of readers. Their desires and views are antipodal. But from what we can learn directly and indirectly, the criticisms are restricted to two classes: First, those who do not think that the paper is "spiritual enough." Part of this feeling undoubtedly comes from their peculiar idea that spirituality consists largely in criticising progressive ideas and dogmas; but in part, perhaps, it comes from the fact that there has not been enough matter of a strictly devotional nature in the paper. The editor himself has not been satisfied along this line. He has written a score or more of men, some of them the leaders in our church of the very school of thought which makes the criticism, urging them to send articles, or sermons, or Bible studies, along this line. And they have not done so. The fact is that there is no other one kind of material so scarce and so hard to find as purely devotional reading matter of a high class. There are mighty few persons who can write it effectively at all. Your editor tried to make arrangement with The Continent to syndicate with it Dr. Jowett's weekly sermon—but that paper is not at liberty to do so just now. And anyway, so long as the editor must make brick without straw, having practically no money with which to buy articles, we will have to content ourselves with the material that writers will furnish free of cost.

The second class of criticism is that The Herald has too much politics in it. The editor has taken some pains to trace down these criticisms to their source as much as he could, and he finds that without exception they have come only from those who think more of their political party than they do of their religion or from those who believe that religion and politics are two absolutely distinct and antipodal entities to be kept in widely separated compartments in a man's life. It seems to me that their criticisms should be given little consideration over against the fact that there has been such general commendation for The Trend of Events department, and the further fact that the largest number of quotations from The Herald appearing in other periodicals have come from that department.

This analysis will perhaps indicate what the editor has had in mind in the making of the paper. For years he has observed that The Herald has found its readers almost entirely among the aged members of the church and those few to whom their religion is their one absorbing interest. But the life and the power of the church, its Sunday-school and Christian Endeavor and Missionary and Forward Movement activities, are rapidly coming to rest upon a younger and more virile type of men and women. And while he has hoped to hold these older readers also, the editor has been endeavoring to make a paper that would have a compelling appeal to this more progressive and dynamic part of the church membership. There are some hopeful indications that the paper is beginning to make headway along this line. But the editor courts from this Board the freest and frankest comment both upon this objective which he has in mind and the nature and content of the paper and what can be done to make it more interesting and forceful.

For the outstanding fact of the matter is that the subscription list makes almost no growth at all. It is less than 4,500 today—and that is only 300 more than it was last January. This is only a little over half of what the circulation was years ago. I can not believe that our people are less willing, with all of their increasing interest in denominational enterprises, to take their church paper now than they were then. Either we have not made the kind of a paper that they want or else have not been skillful in presenting it to them. It is a self-evident fact that we have either fallen down in the making or in the selling end of our business, or both. It is worse than useless to criticise our church members and say that they will not take the church paper. It is our business to make a paper and then to make them want it. That is what all other business concerns have to do. And if the editor is making a paper that our folks can not be persuaded to have, then he wants to know it and wherein he fails. There is no satisfaction in editing a paper that goes into only four thousand homes.

Something will have to be done at once. The financial loss upon The Herald will become unbearable. At the present time, it is about one dollar on every subscription. This can not continue indefinitely. Then there will have to be a new schedule of wages and salaries. The salary of your Manager is only that of the bookkeeper, and lower than some of the printers, that of the editors is still less. The new schedule for printers asks for an increase of $6.00 a week—which would make their margin over the Manager and the editors even still higher. These impending increases in wages of labor and still further advances in the price of paper will make further losses inevitable unless some way is found to prevent them. There are but four courses open:

1. Double the list of subscribers. This would not wipe out the loss, but it would cut it down to a size that could be borne for the sake of the good the increased circulation would do. The editor is absolutely confident that a subscription list of eight or ten thousand is well within the range of possibility.

2. To increase the price. The editor is unalterably opposed to any increase in price. It will simply mean to so further diminish the list that there will be no financial relief and the usefulness of the paper will be reduced to a minimum. There can be no doubt at all on this point with those who have had experience in trying to push its circulation.

3. To cut down the number of pages. This would be far preferable to a raise in price. But it will be a very hard thing to do without destroying the present type and standing of the paper. To reduce it to the required number of pages will leave it little more than a propaganda sheet and a strictly "church organ." The idea of making it a religious periodical for the family will have to be dispensed with so long as it is much smaller in size than at present. Or else it will be necessary for the various boards of the church to find other mediums and other ways of presenting their propaganda matter to the homes of our people. The people will not continue in any large number to take and pay for a periodical which contains mostly appeals for money and help, or matter obviously, though indirectly, laying the foundation for such appeals.

If it is decided to cut the number of pages, then your editor must ask the most serious consideration of the Board to the matter of the make-up and contents of the paper, and the allocation of its limited space in such a way that its present type shall not be destroyed.

4. And the only other remaining relief to tide us over this day of high prices, is, so far as I can see, for the various boards and departments to accept some share of the deficit as their legitimate and reasonable obligation, under these abnormal circumstances, in recognition of the inestimable service which The Herald is rendering to their work and the part which it has played and will continue to play in making their success possible.

The editor urgently recommends this fourth method so far as it shall be necessary in connection with a more intensive and different method of getting and holding subscribers.

Other suggestions or recommendations from the editor will be contingent upon the action of the Board on these more basic matters.

October 19, 1920. ALVA MARTIN KERR, Editor.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

It has been the aim and the practice of your secretary to act in closest consultation and direction of the Sunday-school Board of the Convention. This has been done through our one annual meeting and through correspondence votes on all matters affecting our general Sunday-school work.

The Board has been assigned special departments of the work as follows: Rev. H. G. Rowe, Adult Department; Hermon Eldredge, Young People's Department and General Chairman; Mrs. F. E. Bullock, Children's Department and Secretary of the Board; Rev. H. H. Short, Teacher Training Department; Mr. F. R. Beach, Publicity, Near East Relief and Vice Chairman of the Board; Rev. S. Q. Helfenstein, Literature Department.

As reported by your Secretary at the last annual meeting, our first task was to ascertain the facts regarding our schools, membership, location and needs. This has been a task, and while we have reports from 827 schools with a total membership of 79,888 and we have made estimates covering nearly three hundred schools besides the above from whom we have no definite report, yet we feel that our task is incomplete, although the most complete record we have ever had. We very much need a larger co-operation from the conference Sunday-school Secretaries along the line of securing data and promoting our work. It will be our next task to secure this co-operation. The nearest possible estimate we can now give of our schools and their membership is as follows:

Total number of Sunday-schools, 1,117; total Membership, 94,380.

GENERAL CONDITION OF SCHOOLS

We have many Sunday-schools of the highest grade which are reaching their communities and building up the lives of their pupils and are great assets to the church and community life. However, the number of such schools in proportion to the total number of our schools cannot fairly said to be more than 25%. The great proportion of our schools are small country schools with inadequate leadership. Their maintenance and work in the communities in which they are established is of the highest importance and the future life of usefulness of thousands and tens of thousands of our boys and girls, especially, depends on this being done. The task of bringing vision and inspiration and knowledge and leadership into these isolated schools is a task of the highest magnitude and will never be accomplished by office work or printed matter alone.

NEEDS OF OUR SCHOOLS

Our first need is to have a secretary in the field, and as we have the funds on hand the matter resolves itself into finding the right person to undertake this work. Your secretary has given volunteer work and gone to various sections of the country and his present correspondence along this line has come to be greater than his correspondence from his regular work for which he is engaged. All this he is glad to do but feels that even when that is done that the field is only touched in the high spots. We must have a secretary constantly in the field giving whole time to the work and supplement this by all the intelligent and consecrated volunteer work we may be able to mobilize. Such a secretary would hold conferences and institutes in all sections of our field, plan and promote summer schools, secure and distribute information along all lines of approved Sunday School work, give attention to our literature and lessons and in fact be a general promoter all along the line of our common interests in Sunday-school work. The next step in our organization is to have such a secretary or field worker to get into closest touch and to act un liason with the Sunday-school Board and the conferences and schools.

NEAR EAST RELIEF

It is gratifying to report that the contributions from our schools to the Near East Relief was nearly double what was asked. The contribution to this work in 1918-19 was a little more than $1600, and the Sunday-school Board was asked to increase this to $2,000. The final figures are not all in as the year closes October 1, but the Near East Relief assures us that our contribution this year is well over the $4,000 mark, which shows that our schools can do things. Mr. Beach of our Board was the representative on the Near East Commission. We have approved the Christmas Offering for the Near East Relief this year as the conditions are not improved sufficient to warrant any letup.

SUMMER SCHOOLS

It had been our objective to promote a Summer School of Methods at some central point in each section of our church. The definite points which we have approved are Virginia Beach, Craigville, Winona Lake, and at some point in the Western Convention. Aside from this we rejoice in the inauguration of the Summer School work in our colleges and the promising future of that work.

Your secretary attended Craigville and Winona Lake and assisted in the preparation of the program for Virginia Beach, but on account of the occupation of the workers in the Southern Convention with their Men and Millions Movement, the Virginia Beach Chautauqua was postponed one year at their request. Craigville had a most encouraging start toward a successful future and Winona Lake conference in connection with the Eel River Conference gives great promise, especially because of the plans of the conference toward permanency at Winona and the co-operation of the Winona Lake Assembly. It is the judgment of your secretary that this project of the Eel River Conference should have the moral and financial support of The American Christian Convention and its Boards.

LITERATURE

The lessons and literature of our work are of great importance and your secretary is not at all satisfied with that which we have, although he is keenly sensible to the limitations financially of our Publishing House. Especially. it seems, that it is very desirable to improve our graded lesson text books, if we really are to advance in this line. It is hoped that something may be done along the line of adapting our lessons more closely to our work and we acknowledge progress in this line but believe that much more must be accomplished soon with our added resources.

FINANCES

The contributions to the Sunday School Department are a good indication of the interest being awakened among our schools. The itemized report will be presented to you in detail, but it is encouraging to report that the total contributions from regular channels this year is fully double what it has been in any previous year, while outside of the regular contribution has been over four thousand dollars to the Near East Relief and $5,000 from the Forward Movement making the total increase of finances this year nearly one thousand percent beyond any previous year. It is the mind of your secretary, and this has the approval of the Sunday School Board, that one half of the funds received from the Forward Movement be set aside as an endowment and the balance be used for current expenses.

This additional money entrusted to the work of the Sunday School Department means added responsibility to those who gave it and who expect results along the line of the development of our work. We are keenly sensible to this obligation and our annual meeting this year will be of greatest importance, as we are to plan for the extension of our work in a larger way than we have ever had the opportunity of doing.

INTERDENOMINATIONAL CO-OPERATION

Your Secretary has acted on the International Lesson Committee and attended both the annual and semi-annual meeting in Daytona, Florida, and in New York City, and has also acted on its various committees and work in the interim. We have also acted in co-operation with the Sunday School Council of Evangelical Denominations and the International Sunday School Association, which two organizations effected a union at Buffalo in June, greatly to the advantage of both organizations and the churches and work which they represent.

Your secretary had the honor of being elected a delegate to the Tokyo World's Sunday School Convention, both by our own Sunday School Board and to represent the International Lesson Committee. It was with keen regret that he was obliged to give up such an opportunity, especially since he was scheduled to take a part representing the Lesson Committee and also a part on the program (and I think that I should say that the reasons which finally almost forced me to not go was not only the fact that I had been away from my work for nearly three years, but that important matters in connection with the Interchurch World Movement made the going out of the question. I am presenting this not only as an explanation, but almost as an apology, since so many were so kind as to urge my going and made the possibility so easy and so attractive.)

TEACHERS AND OFFICERS JOURNAL

My position as editor of the Teachers and Officers Journal is especially related to The Christian Publishing Association, but since it so closely approximates my other duties along Sunday-school lines, I am stating here that it is the mind of your secretary and of the Board that extension and improvement should be a part of our Forward program and that additional money should be available for contributed articles and cuts and that the magazine should be issued monthly as soon as possible. We feel that (if necessary) Sunday-school Funds may well be devoted to this desired end.

HERALD OF GOSPEL LIBERTY

Your secretary has contributed a weekly full page of comment on the Sunday-school lesson and has been able under stress to make this continuous with the exception of one week, I believe, during the year.

This work takes time and is very exacting and I have tried to secure someone else to do this as I have felt that it was impossible to give the necessary thought and time to the work, with the result that at times it has had to be done in a very hurried superficial way—especially the four months when out on the Interchurch World Movement Campaign.

I have asked Brother Kerr to relieve me and when possible to substitute another to do this work, not because I do not enjoy the work, but because it seems impossible with other pressing duties to give the necessary study and time to its proper presentation. Errors have occurred which have rather shamed me, and which have occurred because of the hurried preparation on trains and away from library and all the surroundings which seem necessary to work and write to advantage. Some of these errors have given me a sense of humiliation and I confess them for my own relief.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Department of Religious education of the Forward Movement runs on such parallel lines that I have been able to combine many activities which have had to do with both departments. However, as much as I feel the need of emphasis and plans and promotion for systematic Religious Education in our church, yet I feel that the Sunday School Department is being neglected by my trying to cover too much ground and others can take up this burden in a better way than I have been able to do. In resigning this office with the Forward Movement, I desire to emphasize again our great need for a full fledged program of Religious Education which will be constructive and not piece-meal, and gradually guide and build up our children from the home through the Sunday School and Christian Endeavor and Missionary and other organizations into the college and into lives of service.

SUMMARY

Altogether the work of the Department has so increased in every line that it has been necessary for me to divorce its mails and center from my office and to establish an office in my home with a stenographer on part time to attend to the increasing demands of the work. With the additional work and questions and promotion comes added progress all along the line, but the time has come that this office is not at all sufficient for the needs and with the addition of one or more field workers the work will be more fully cared for.

HERMON ELDREDGE, Secretary.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL LITERATURE

As I have but little to report, my statement will be brief. It is a satisfaction to know that the Sunday School Herald and Junior Herald, the Bible Class Quarterly and the Intermediate Quarterly are all holding their own.

During the summer quarters the Bible Class and Intermediate Quarterlies were all sold, but the Junior Quarterly has been falling off, owing to the demand for the Graded Series.

Mrs. Josephine Sloan, one of the contributors to the Sunday School Herald requested me to increase the pay for her stories.

Mr. and Miss Owen continue to write with no complaint.

I shall be pleased to have the usual appropriations.

S. Q. HELFENSTEIN.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

The Church has no more important task than the supervision, direction, and training of the lives of her young people.

The church or denomination that is neglecting its young people, is not only missing its supreme opportunity of helping the life of the community and the world but is also by that act failing to conserve its own life; and if it do not speedily perish, must live at a poor, dying rate.

The attitude of a great many, interested in the church and young people, was one of optimism at the close of the Great War. They felt somehow that our young men who had been so suddenly flung into the facing of the most serious situations imaginable and with visions fired with a great spiritual ideal would come back from the camps and the trenches to fill our churches and Young People's societies. But they did not. Somehow with the accomplishment of their great task the ideal splendid faded away.

We find from studying the reports given in the Annual for 1920, 192 Senior Societies, with an enrollment of 6,118,, 20 Junior Societies, and 7 Intermediate Societies; bue we are confident this does not represent our full strength.

Never was there a time when the church and the world needed more, that which the Christian Endeavor society is able to contribute, than NOW.

When Christian Endeavor made its initial appearance in church life, it was believed to have been the most advanced step the church had ever taken for its young people. It was but in its infancy then; today it is a strong man, capable of performing great, splendid tasks and bearing heavy burdens on its shoulders. Then it was but lisping the alphabet of successful training for service for Christ and the Church; today with its all-round program for the development of life foursquare, physical, social, mental, spiritual, it speaks a well-nigh perfect message for the culture and development of vital, practical, Christian character through instruction and practical training in actual service to God and man.

As a church we must build up our Christian Endeavor work. We cannot afford to let it languish and die.

During the year, the Secretary has prepared the notes on the Christian Endeavor prayer-meeting topics for this department in The Herald of Gospel Liberty.

He has attended and addressed two Conferences in the interest of Endeavor work; written 125 letters, graded the examination papers of four aspirants for the degree of C. E. Expert; also, prepared a list of 100 questions on "Expert Endeavor" to be used in examining those seeking this degree, and wrote the pamphlet used in making the "Annual Call."

We are very much in hopes that it will be possible to secure and place in the field a Field Secretary of Endeavor, during this coming year. If this can be accomplished, then, we may look for a real advance and may be able to come to the next Annual Board Meeting with a report ringing with the sure, strong note of victorious achievement along all lines of Christian Endeavor work.

EDUCATION

THE INTENSIFICATION OF THE EDUCATIONAL APPEAL

Due in some measure to the aftermath of the war, but more certainly to the demand for trained leadership in all departments of life, education is appealing to the youth of our land more than at any time in its history. Most of our colleges are reporting larger attendance this year, notwithstanding the increased cost of the college course. In government controlled institutions the cost has grown very materially, due to causes for the most part beyond the control of the college and university authorities, such as the high living cost. The larger schools, including church schools, have increased the cost of tuition and technical college expense more decidedly than have the smaller institutions. In the latter case expenses have not kept pace with the increased cost of operation, making the financial problem a much more burdensome one. The fact that the earning capacity of the youth of America has been greatly augmented by the rising scale of labor prices within the last half decade is doubtless contributory to the increased attendance at the various educational centers.

This, in itself, is hopeful. But it lays upon the church increasing responsibilities. No danger is so grave to the triumph of righteousness as the trained individual who is religiously irresponsible. The increase of education among the masses and the developing opportunity it affords the church creates at the same time an added responsibility to see this new power is turned to right ends.

The coming of the Kingdom of God is an educational process. "The capital irreverence of our time is we will not take God's way." Never was the educational appeal so strong upon men as today. The church must meet this new and most inspiring manifestation of race development adequately or the Kingdom will suffer greatly. It is open to question if there is any more seriously intensified problem before the church today than that of Christianizing our educational program. Here, at least, we are dealing with the potential leadership of the next generation. Its attitude to Christianity will determine what the bent of the next generation will be toward Christ.

FINANCIAL PROBLEMS

The requirements indicated by the Interchurch World Movement for a college to do its best work included

	Minimum for 100 students	Efficient for 500 students
Plant and equipment	$350,000.00	$ 985,000.00
Endowment	403,200.00	2,215,000.00
Total	$753,200.00	$3,200,000.00
Per student	7,532.00	6,400.00

No one of our colleges approaches these estimates. It becomes manifest they must have stronger financial support if they are to function to a maximum degree.

All of our colleges are at the present time conducting campaigns for increased endowment, with the exception of Elon, which completed a most successful campaign, some time since, in the Southern Christian Convention. The Forward Movement has doubtless temporarily retarded the progress of these endowment campaigns, but it is expected the ultimate result will be beneficial, as the spirit of stewardship will be greatly developed by the Forward Movement Program. In this connection it may be noted one of the greatest financial aids to a constructive educational policy in the church is and will be the increasing body of men and women who go out from our colleges, and, knowing the advantages afforded and inspired with a loftier vision of the educational demands and opportunities of the educational programs of the church, will lend their aid in the development of an educational conscience among the people. Nothing less than this is our present need and duty. Multitudes of people in our church seem to think our educational work is optional and little driblets come into the office of the Board from churches that ought to be giving hundreds of dollars, yearly.

PROPAGANDA

It is the real need of creating an educational conscience among our people that suggests the task that immediately faces us as a denomination. How is it to be accomplished?

During the last year the Board has not been as active in matters of publicity as we desired. The cause lies in the lack of officials who can devote their time to such a need. A systematic attempt to develop the spirit of educational co-operation among our people demands care and attention no one connected with our educational work has at his disposal. Not only has matter to be prepared but it must be distributed. The colleges have aided in this greatly with literature and lecture prepared and presented by their own representatives. But unquestionably the work will not be adequately done until some official is set apart for this particular task. Such a possibility may not be so far removed since the Forward Movement has been contributing to the financial support of the work.

The Report of the Board which was issued in pamphlet form last year was widely distributed among the ministry of the church, a copy being placed in practically every minister's hands. It was probably the most forward step in the matter of propaganda made during the year. A Quarterly Bulletin put out by the Board for free distribution is one of the possibilities of the future. Co-operation between the Educational Board and the Colleges in the monthly Bulletin, some of them now issue, is also a possibility. But again it requires time and attention beyond that now at the disposal of the Department. And yet some form of propaganda must be devised that will meet the impelling need. If our people are not aroused here our work is doomed to slow growth, if, indeed, its movement be not backward. Some of our colleges are preparing stereopticon lectures bearing upon the whole question of education and upon their own work in particular. It is hoped all our colleges will avail themselves of this method of arousing the people to the capital importance of Christian education in the coming of the Kingdom. The distribution of our territory among our colleges and the possibility of each school working its own territory opens the way to reach the whole denominational constituency and quickening the last individual to the realization of the fundamental principles of education, its primal importance in religion, the necessity of securing the religious emphasis in our educational program, and the particular work of our colleges.

LIFE SERVICE RECRUITING

Since the work of recruiting for life service has been taken over by the Home Mission Department and the Forward Movement less emphasis has been placed upon this important phase of our work by the Educational Board. While giving every aid it could to the enterprise, which is denominational, it has not undertaken to secure lists of possible candidates for the ministry and other Christian work. All our churches were requested to observe Educational Week, during which period they were urged to pray for our educational work and present in the most forcible manner possible, to the youth under their charge, the claims of Christian Service.

Experience has taught us our pastors have not recognized, as they should, the age at which such choices are made. The lists furnished the Department, when an active work was done in securing recruits, were of men approaching or over thirty, some of them married and with families. What is needed here is the approach to the boy and girl of high school age. A comprehensive plan of life enlistment should be worked out, probably by the Forward Movement Executive, and all our denominational agencies be asked to co-operate in putting it into operation. Such a plan should include the possibilities of the family, the church school, and the church college. Haphazard methods will not avail here better than elsewhere in the work of the Kingdom.

Gradually our denominational leadership is beginning to realize the possibilities of student aid, afforded through the scholarships which have been made available by the Educational Board, and the way is being opened to prevail upon young men and women to secure adequate educational equipment for effectual life work. Your Board believes this will go far toward the solution of the problem of securing a well trained leadership.

CO-ORDINATING OUR EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

It is of the utmost importance some endeavor should be made to co-ordinate our whole church educational program. Church schools, by which we mean our Sunday-schools, should, as soon as possible, shape their courses in Bible instruction, sociology, missions, and church history, so as to meet the requirements of junior and advanced church colleges that credit may be given for the work done. This will have the double advantage of securing better work in the church school and turning the youth of our churches to our church colleges.

In this connection, since the church has created dual educational secretaries, there should be collusion of effort with as little confusion as is possible under the circumstances. In any event the Sunday-school Board and the Educational Board should be brought into the closest possible touch with each other with the view to co-ordinating the whole educational program of the church. Both are working at the same great task. With the developing consciousness of the dignity attaching to the church school and the outlining of courses of study that are comprehensive and broadly educational the way opens for co-operation to a degree not possible in the past. One of the results of such procedure would be to increase attendance at the church school, knowing, in the advanced courses offered, credit would be given in a graduate college. Another benefit would be to secure a better trained class of teachers. The largest good, however, would unquestionably be to make the educational program of the church one and so unify all our educational endeavor. The process is undoubtedly one of great difficulty and will take considerable time. But the necessity of more intelligent action here is the moving motive to the attempt, an attempt we are sure will ultimately meet with success. The church college is such a power in our land it may well put into operation plans to meet its educational ideals, irrespective of action on the part of our national educationalists and state institutions. When the church college has demonstrated the possibility of such procedure the state institution will adopt it as it has done in so many instances affecting our national system of education.

INTERDENOMINATIONAL CO-OPERATION

The creation of the Council of Church Boards of Education has been one of the most forward steps of recent years in the way of interdenominational federation of effort. In the unifying of the denominational program of education stress must be laid upon the possibility of interdenominational co-operation. The church is alive to the necessity of united action here. Eventually the adoption of common courses, with such variation as denominational expediency may suggest, will be secured. Community schools of religion will be founded. Common educational literature will be published as the church school boards of three of the largest religious bodies in this country have begun to do in "Christian Education," a journal devoted to the arousement of the educational spirit of the church and to the developing of methods of approach. When the Protestant church speaks with one voice with respect to some of these religious educational problems there will be only one course for the state to pursue and that will be to hearken.

Our Educational Board has been represented at the meetings of the Council of Church Boards of Education, both at the annual meeting of the Board and at subsequent executive meetings. It also took action with a view to uniting with the other denominations represented in the Ohio School of Religion, founded last year. President Caris of Defiance was nominated to the position of denominational representative, and has assisted in the shaping of the school. The action of the Board to meet the financial obligation involved was taken only at the point of necessity to meet immediate requirements. The Board is of the opinion the State Association should assume responsibility eventually, and we doubt not this will be done as soon as action can be taken to this end.

OUR COLLEGES

All our schools and colleges with one exception, to be noted later, are growing in effectual educational power. As a whole our educational work was never on a sounder basis. The federating of some of our schools within the last decade was a necessary step of progress, our institutions being now so situated as to serve the most populous sections of our work. The Southern Christian Convention has taken action looking to the founding of a Junior Christian College in the extreme South to serve the conferences of Georgia and Alabama. This will in turn be, for the present, at least, a feeder for Elon.

Jireh College, Jireh, Wyoming, is the one exception to the number of our schools in active operation. A year ago application was made to the Educational Board for a special grant of $100,000 to assist in a five-year program of development in this section of our work. The Board felt before such a grant could be made the possibilities of the Wyoming field should be thoroughly investigated, so far, at least, as the Educational Board was concerned, no such survey had been made. The Home Mission Board was invited to co-operate in the investigation, and subsequently a representative of the Convention was also added. A joint meeting of the Educational and the Home Mission Boards was held in Dayton, in the month of May last, at which a report of two of the members of the investigating committee was presented. At a separate meeting of the Educational Board a resolution prevailed to the effect it would not be advisable in view of the limited financial resources of the Board and of the need of developing its work as a whole in the near future to make the special appropriation requested. The joint Boards decided to ascertain the possibility of interdenominational action at Jireh, with a view to conserving results, if further investigation proved the wisdom of such procedure. Final action was deferred until the present meeting, with the hope the larger counsel of the combined boards might lend wisdom in so important a step. The Jireh work is more than an educational project. Indeed it was not originally designed, if the information of the Secretary is correct, to be educational in character. It is a home mission enterprise and even the college there must be considered from that light. Here, as nowhere else in our field, must the problem be viewed from the standpoint of home mission interests. It must not be overlooked that the Jireh enterprise was not in its inception a studied attempt on the part of the church to extend the bounds of its activity, but only incidental, initial action being taken by members of the church who undertook to colonize the section immediately about Jireh, and who, loyal to the church of their choice, founded a church and school there, their action being, at their request, sympathetically endorsed by church representatives. Later the Home Mission Board concluded to look to the enlargement of the work there and substantial assistance has been given by individual members of the church and the Educational Board to the college.

SUMMER CONFERENCES

The Board assisted in a small way in the Summer School for Rural Pastors held at Defiance, in July. Only words of commendation are to be spoken for the school. Doubtless it will be continued. Such a school, though much briefer, was held at Palmer College, Albany, Mo., and it was the purpose to conduct such a summer institute at Elon as well. For local reasons the latter school was not held, though we believe plans are being laid to make it possible next year. Such a school, lasting for a week, was also held at Craigville, Mass., for the pastors of New England. These conferences promise much for the future development of the leadership of the church. We have been long getting under way, but we hope effort will not relax in the future.

INCORPORATION OF THE BOARD

The Board is taking action looking to its incorporation, as funds held in trust by it promise to be much larger in the future than in its past history. With the development of an educational spirit among our people we may expect the Board will be called upon to administer property gifts and other bequests made by the friends of our educational work. To meet such emergencies it seeks incorporation under the laws of the State of Ohio.

THE RESIGNATION OF DR. MACCALMAN

It is with the most sincere regret we have to announce the resignation, due to ill health and inability to attend the meetings of the Board, of John MacCalman, D. D., of Lakemont, N. Y. Dr. MacCalman has for a number of years been a tried and trusted official of the Department. His counsel was always wise and his fidelity to duty never failing. He was more than a wise counselor; he was a firm friend. It was with great reluctance the Board was finally moved to recommend his resignation be accepted. The importance of the matters presented for decision on the part of the Board seemed to make it expedient the largest counsel possible should be secured. The place vacated has been filled by the appointment of Clarence E. Huff, of Oronoque, Kansas, who has been invited to sit with the Board at its present session.

DEPARTMENT OF SUNDAY-SCHOOLS

Hermon Eldredge, Secretary

SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD

Hermon Eldredge, Erie, Pa.—Chairman and Young People's Division.
Mrs. F. E. Bullock, Dayton, Ohio—Secretary and Children's Division.
Rev. H. G. Rowe, Warren, Ind.—Adult Superintendent.
F. R. Beach, Irvington, N. J.—Vice-Chairman and Near East Relief.
Rev. H. H. Short, Bluffton, Ind., R. R. 6—Teacher-Training Superintendent.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD

An Outline of Its Organization and Objectives

The Sunday-school Board has made an effort to "plan their work and work their plan" along the following lines.

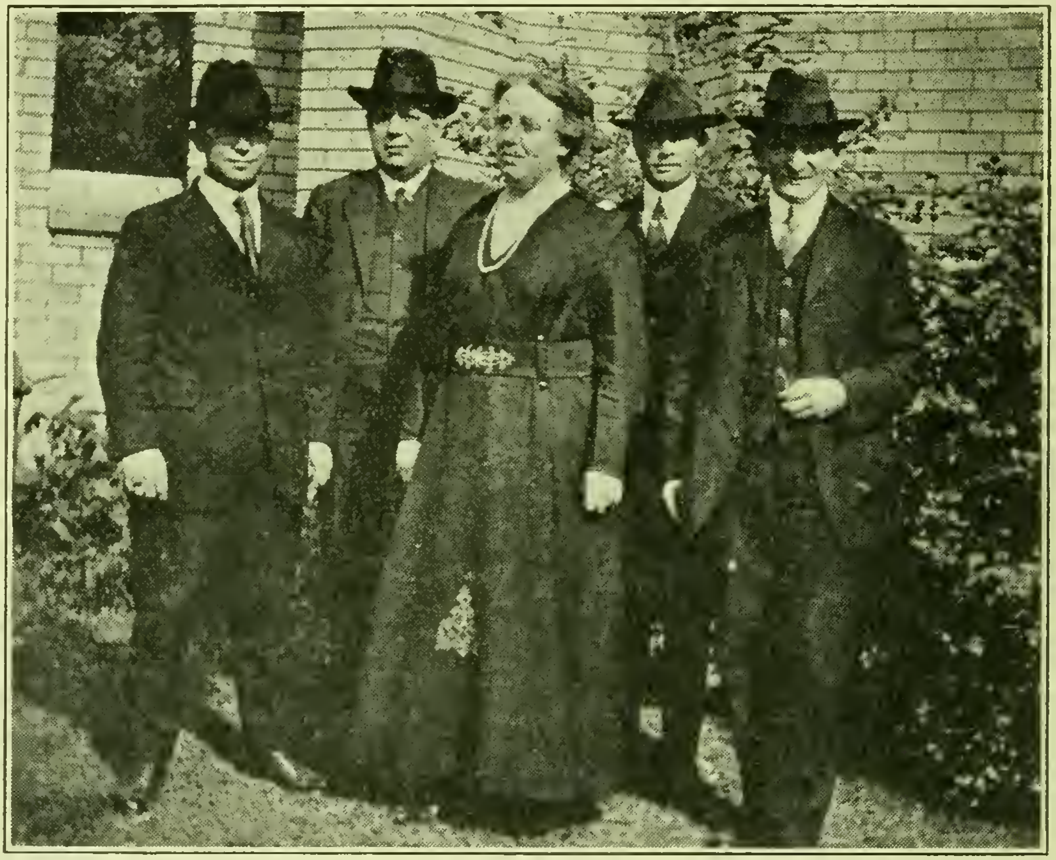
Mr. Hermon Eldredge, of Erie, Pa., is Secretary of the Sunday-school Department of The American Christian Convention and Chairman of the Sunday-school Board. Mr. Eldredge also serves as Editor of the Sunday-school Officers and Teachers Journal and is a member of the International Lesson Committee and on various committees of the International Sunday-school Association and the Sunday-school Council of Evangelical Denominations. All matters of general Sunday-school work should be referred to Mr. Eldredge and especially those relating to the work of the Board People's Division.

Mrs. F. E. Bullock, care Christian Publishing Association, Dayton, Ohio, is Secretary of the Sunday-school Board and Superintendent of the Children's Division. Mrs. Bullock will enter the field January 1, giving whole time to the work of the Sunday-schools of the Christian Church, under the direction of the Sunday-school Board. She will also have a relationship to The Christian Publishing Association, especially in the preparation of the children's lessons and papers issued by our church. Mrs. Bullock is familiar with all lines of Sunday-school work and her long connection not only with our church work but with the Sunday-school Council of Evangelical Denominations prepares her to render valuable service at our Conferences, Summer Schools, Chautauquas, Schools of Methods, and other like gatherings.

Mr. F. R. Beach, of Irvington, N. J., is Vice-Chairman of the Sunday-school Board and has a special relationship to the general work in organization and Publicity and as representative of the Sunday-school Board on the Near East Relief. Last year largely through Mr. Beach's wise co-operation we were able to double our offering to this fund.

Rev. H. G. Rowe, of Warren, Indiana, is Superintendent of the Adult Division of the Sunday-school Board. This Division comprises not only the Organized Adult Bible Class work but the Parents' Department and the Home Department. Mr. Rowe has had a wide experience in both city and country work along these lines and is willing and anxious to be of service.

Rev. H. H. Short, of Bluffton, Ind., is Superintendent of Teacher-Training of the Sunday-school Board. In this department Brother Short has had personal experience with Teacher-Training Classes and is ready to assist in promotion of classes or in the securing of credits and diplomas. He is desirous that classes correspond with him regarding courses from the first elementary books to the final diplomas. He is convinced that there is little use for classes to begin on elaborate courses before they have mastered the elementary outlines.



Members of the Sunday-school Board

Rev. S. Q. Helfenstein, D. D., of Dayton, Ohio, is Editor of the Sunday-school Publications of the Christian Church and as such he becomes a member ex-officio of the Sunday-school Board. Dr. Helfenstein would welcome suggestions and contributions to our Sunday-school periodicals. If original articles of merit are beyond you, then you may render a real service by clipping any article which you think would be helpful to our folks and sending it to Dr. Helfenstein, suggesting the use of same. Many fine things must be overlooked by one pair of eyes and Dr. Helfenstein will greatly appreciate your co-operation in this.

A comprehensive objective of the Sunday-school Board is given in the International Standard for Sunday-schools which is as follows:

INTERNATIONAL STANDARD SUNDAY-SCHOOL

1. A Cradle Roll and Home Department.
2. Organized Class in both Secondary and Adult Divisions.
3. Teacher-Training Class.

Fifty conferences have sent money, really fifty-two, but two of them such a small amount as to make it unfair to the others to reckon them.

The total amount per capita for both home and foreign missions, aside from the amount received from the Forward Movement, from the whole church including gifts from individuals which are not reported in the conferences, was a little over one dollar. Including the amount from the Forward Movement which came largely from the same individuals, it was $1.65 per capita.

One conference gave more than two dollars per member and ten gave more than one dollar per member. They are as follows:

Southern Kansas, $2.08; Ontario, $1.97; Central Illinois, $1.82; Southern Indiana, $1.80; Miami Ohio, $1.59; Northern Illinois, $1.30; Western Indiana, $1.28; Merrimack, $1.26; New York Central, $1.21; Northwestern Indiana, $1.17; New York Western, $1.01. The Rockingham Conference just lacked one cent of one dollar per member. We do not have the record so as to show what the per capita from conferences might have been if their Forward Movement money could have been counted also.

This shows a gain in amount of business of over twenty-five thousand dollars, but expenses have risen to a very high point, so that the gains from all sources have been only nominal, a little more than last year; yet when all depreciations are considered, very little profits are to our credit. On The Herald of Gospel Liberty the loss was $3,054.51 and on The Junior Herald $826.80.

The Herald of Gospel Liberty is of high order as a religious journal; we cannot improve it materially; no member of the Christian Church should be without it, and he should read it week by week. If this were made a fact by our church people, then, very little, if any, deficit would appear in The Herald account. Our ministers are the key men in the circulation of The Herald. We must count on them and we hope they will do their utmost to put The Herald into more homes. The Junior Herald we hope to make better for our young people, so that every Sunday-school will be taking it upon its merits as well as upon loyalty to our Sunday-school publications.

We have no report from the following named conferences:—Michigan, Western Pennsylvania, Wyoming, West Virginia, Peoples Colored.

The Ministerial list may be incomplete for this reason:—Quite a number of ministers who have been reported heretofore are not reported this year. The names of many of them appear in the ministerial directory. They may, or they may not be correctly listed either in membership, or post office address. This must continue until churches and conferences will think enough of themselves to elect competent officers.

The reports this year have been unusually indifferent.

Union Christian College is under the direct control of a board of fifteen trustees representing Christian conferences in Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois, and one representative from the College Alumni Association. Two-thirds of members of the board must be members of the Christian Church.

Union Christian College Day (for Indiana and Illinois churches), second Sunday of July.

Interesting and Suggestive Facts About Union Christian College

It was founded in 1860.

It is a co-educational institution.

It has a beautiful campus of twenty-seven acres.

It has dormitory accommodations for sixty students.

A new gymnasium and chapel was erected this year.

It is delightfully situated on high bluffs overlooking the Wabash River and the Illinois prairies.

Two hundred and twenty dollars will pay for board, room, and tuition in college or preparatory department for one year.

Union Christian College graduates are to be found in every honorable profession and business.

The men and women who have attended the college have honored the institution by their successful efforts in their chosen work. An unusually large per cent has been conspicuously successful, and they have reflected unusual honor upon their Alma Mater.

Two members of the Alumni Association were members of the last Congress.

Nineteen of the many successful teachers are in colleges or universities as presidents or professors.

Several of the ministers and others of the Alumni Association have achieved unusual success as authors and lecturers.

The College Offers Instruction as Follows:

College of Liberal Arts and Science—Leading to baccalaureate degrees.

Religious Education—For prospective ministers and Christian workers. (Biblical, but non-sectarian.)

Music—Piano, Singing, Band and Orchestra Instruments, Harmony, History of Music.

Academy—The location is delightful. The equipment is adequate. The instruction is thorough. The costs are moderate. The ideals are Christian. The environment is wholesome.

SUGGESTIONS were made, from several sources, concerning the propriety of providing a memorial in honor of Professor Elizabeth Hatten, and her many years of faithful, efficient service in Union Christian College, and that too, while she was still in service, and might know of it, and enjoy it. The College had long been in need of a gymnasium, and, in recent years, of a chapel. These needs were known to Professor Hatten, and, when it was proposed to erect a building to meet these needs, and call it the Hatten Building, she was agreeable to the suggestion, and made the initial gift for the erection of it. Her friends added to the gift, until the building was made possible and the work completed.

The gymnasium is forty-eight feet wide and seventy-two feet long, and has an eighteen foot ceiling. It is constructed of the most suitable material for the purpose and provides for the college and equipment long needed. The chapel seats about one hundred and seventy-five people, and is used for the daily chapel services and for the Sunday public worship.

Professor Hatten has been a member of the college faculty for a period of forty years, and has a large number of friends who were delighted with the privilege of co-operating with her in the erection of a building that bears her name, and contribute to the institution with which she has so long been associated.

Gymnasium and Chapel, Union Christian College

The building is heated with a vacuum vapor system, and is giving entire satisfaction. The college electric plant is installed in the basement of the building and provides light not only for the new building, but for all the college buildings and the campus.

The building was formally dedicated to the purpose for which it was erected, on January 25, 1920, Rev. J. F. Burnett being in charge of the service. An interesting feature of the evening service was the addition of ten members to the Merom Christian Church, which organization use the chapel of the Hatten Building for its religious services.

S. A. HOWELL was born in Nansemond County, Virginia, in 1860. From his early years he was inclined toward mental development, and secured the best possible advantages from the schools of his boyhood life. Later he entered Franklinton Christian College, from which school he graduated in 1885. His post-graduate work was done in Association College, Baltimore, Maryland, from which school he received his diploma. For a number of years he taught in the public schools of North Carolina and Virginia, and later in the public schools of Newport News, Virginia.

At an early age he was called into the ministry, and had pastoral charge of his home church, Corinth Chapel, for thirty-five years, and is still new in that community, loved and respected by all. He was pastor of Wesley Grove Christian Church, in the city of Newport News, for twenty-five years, being re-elected each succeeding year.

. In 1909, the Afro-Christian Convention sent him to South America, where he organized a Christian Church. He has been President of the Afro-Christian Convention for a number of years, which office he now holds. He has recently been elected President of Franklinton Christian College.

Report of the Board of Education, Southern Christian Convention

We wish again to affirm our conviction as to the necessity of Christian Education in a democracy. We would go further and declare our conviction that it is equally essential for the world. Somewhere in the social order there must be an institution functioning in the production of leaders, endowing them in their formative days with the spirit of unselfish altruistic service. We do not hesitate to say that that institution judged by experience and purposeful aim is the Christian College. Had the nations of the world been wise to spend millions through their generous citizens for Christian Education, the billions that went up in smoke and shell and hate during the World War need never to have been spent. But we must cease lamenting the past and adjust ourselves to the present challenge to reconstruct the world on the basis of Christian leadership, for which we are dependent upon the Christian College.

ELON COLLEGE

The pride of this Convention's heart educationally is our own Elon now fast approaching her thirtieth anniversary commencement. This institution conceived in love and hope, brought forth in poverty and devotion, baptized with the high purpose to provide men and women with the privileges of higher education under positive Christian influences, has through these thirty years justified our every hope and rewarded our every sacrifice. With the pride of humility and gratitude for service rendered we point to Elon as the largest single contribution our Brotherhood has made in constructive statesmanship to the Kingdom of God.

In 1889, the year Elon was chartered, we had seventy-two ministers, two of whom were college graduates. We now have 100 ministers and 61 of them are college graduates. In 1889 we had 17 licentiates, none of whom were college men. Now we have 22 licentiates and one-half of them are college men.

The distribution of the 368 full graduates is indication, too, as to the faithfulness with which our college has lived up to her high profession of Christian service.

In this day, too, when the materialistic tendencies of the times are being lamented, it is highly suggestive to consider how the Elon graduates, including the class of 1920, and those in universities for further preparation, have been distributed professionally for each of the three decades of her history.

STANDARDIZATION FUND

The Franklin (1918) session of the Convention authorized the Board of Trustees of Elon College to undertake the raising of additional endowment for Elon. The Trustees in their May session that year appointed a campaign committee consisting of Col. J. E. West, Hon. K. B. Johnson, and Dr. R. M. Morrow, with Dr. W. W. Staley as an ex-officio member representing the Convention as such, to start the campaign whenever they and the president should think proper. Accordingly the campaign was launched February 23, 1919, and concluded on June 30 of that year. The sum total subscribed was $381,600.00 We herewith record our grateful appreciation for this generous response on the part of the church. We feel that the facts set forth above explain why our people gave so liberally.

We would too record our grateful appreciation of the wise committee that led in this campaign and of those who assisted the president for varying portions of time in the field work outside their own local churches or fields of labor. These brethren were: Rev. A. T. Banks, Rev. R. F. Brown, Rev. E. M. Carter, Rev. L. I. Cox, Rev. H. S. Hardcastle, Rev. B. J. Howard, Prof. C. C. Johnson, Rev. J. Vincent Knight, Rev. G. O. Lankford, Rev. N. G. Newman, Rev. C. B. Riddle, Rev. W. W. Staley, Mr. L. W. Vaughn, Jr., Rev. T. E. White, and Rev. W. C. Wicker.

PRESENT ASSETS OF THE COLLEGE

On January 1, 1920, the college plant and holdings were inventoried at their estimated present worth and revealed the following conditions:

Total value of plant and equipment	$506,600.00
Total productive endowment	237,614.05
Total of unproductive endowment including unpaid subscriptions	303,251.91
Total of funds subject to annuity	3,000.00
Total of other assets	37,500.00
Total assets	$1,087,965.96
Less active liabilities	77,500.00
Net assets	$1,010,465.96

The Christian Church has every reason to be gratified at these results. We have done well, but we are far from reaching the requirements outlined by the Interchurch World Movement for a college to be able to do its best work. We herewith append their standards for a minimum college of 100 and for an efficient college of 500 students:

	Minimum For 100 Students	Efficient For 500 Students
Plant and Equipment	$350,000	$ 985,000
Endowment	403,200	2,215,000
Total	$753,200	$3,200,000
Per Student	$ 7,532	$ 6,400

Our enrollment is fixed at four hundred, which, according to these standards, would require total assets of $2,560,000, with a plant valued at $788,000 and an endowment of $1,772,000. Manifestly we have room to grow, according to these standardizers. We do not accept their conclusions, but merely give them as facts. It is our conviction that more things than buildings, equipment, and money are required to make a real college, and these Elon has in abundance, with her scholarly faculty of Christian men and women, her Christian atmosphere of altrusim and brotherhood, her thirty years of proved service in the cause of humanity and of God. We resent any attempt on the part of standardizing agencies anywhere to reduce so vital an institution as a Christian College to a mere perfunctory sum in arithmetic. Issues of the Kingdom must not be dealt with in such Philistine fashion.

ELON'S NEEDS

This, however, does not blind us to Elon's needs nor warrant us in any proposal to relax our efforts to strengthen our college. We enumerate the following needs as imperative: the prompt payment of all subscriptions that the endowment now largely unproductive may become productive, the elimination of the active liabilities account, a science hall, a fine arts building, a library and college activities building, and provision for the complete separation of the college and preparatory departments. We cannot provide for all of these now, but we can look forward to their coming and plan wisely therefor. It is also suggested that a law department might probably be added.

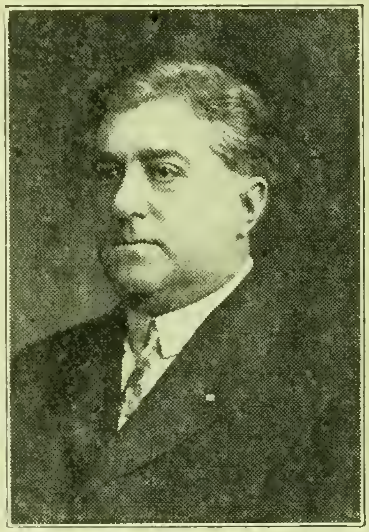
WALNUT HILLS

"This is the gospel of labor—
Ring it, ye bells of the kirk!
The Lord of love came down from above
To live with the men who work.
This is the rose He planted
Here in the thorn-cursed soil:
Heaven is blest with perfect rest,
But the blessing of earth is toil."

Rev. Pressley E. Zartmann retired January 30, 1921, from his first regular pastorate—Walnut Hills, Dayton, Ohio, and immediately began his pastoral labors with the church at Shiloh, four miles north of Dayton. Not only has he retired from his first pastorate, but the Walnut Hills Church loses its first pastor. The church was organized April 26, 1908, with twenty-seven covenant members. On February 7, 1909, Rev. Mr. Zartmann became pastor. During the twelve years that he served the church, he received into membership 359 persons. Deducting deaths, removables, and withdrawals, the church now enrolls 190 members with all auxiliary branches well organized, and in good working order. Two lots were purchased early in 1911, and a house of worship erected on one of them the same year. The purchase price of the lots and the cost of the building was about $6,000.00, every penny of which has been paid, and on Sunday, February 15, 1920, the notes and mortgages were burned, and the church stood free from debt.



Pressley E. Zartmann

He received a call from the Shiloh Church early in August, 1919, but for reasons which were good in his judgment, he did not accept. The call was renewed in December of 1920, both being urgent and unanimous. He accepted the second call and thus terminated twelve years of successful pastoral service in a large city. During all these years, of numerous calls to funerals, weddings, and to assist in special meetings and to conduct the music on many occasions, he held the position of Superintendent of Publications with The Christian Publishing Association, and for three years past the Vice-President of the American Insurance Union. He surrendered his position with The Christian Publishing Association, covering a period of sixteen years, but continues in office with the Insurance Union, to which he will give larger service.

Walnut Hills Church

Rev. Zartmann is now, and has been for some years, Secretary of the Miami Ohio Christian Conference, in which office he has been faithful and efficient. It is but fair to state, for it is truth, that during all the years of his arduous duties, his faithful and devoted wife proved a help in time of need.

The editor of this publication bears this public testimony to more than thirteen years of close association with Rev. Mr. Zartmann, much of which was under trying circumstances, and never did he find him indifferent to his task, unwilling to oblige, nor derelict in duty. This may be the last year that he will make up THE CHRISTIAN ANNUAL; but, be it so, but few men could have done as well, and none could have done better.

The Afro-Christian Convention

After oft repeated efforts in various directions and to many persons, to secure the reports of conferences, for the Christian Annual, we are compelled to confess our failure: this we do very much to our own regret and certainly to a decided disadvantage to the Convention itself. A score or more of letters went out to different persons asking for these reports, not one of which succeeded. But few replies were received and they were in answer to direct questions but nothing more. This fact is stated in explanation of the absence of the reports.

We give the names of the officers of the Convention as published in the "Program of the Biennial General Convention, (Twenty-seventh session), Afro-Christian Convention held in Raleigh, N. C., June, 1920."

A few corrections in the list have been made from the printed proceedings of the Convention by Rev. W. Geo. Avant, Field Secretary, Franklinton, N. C.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The following was prepared by the Rev. F. G. Coffin, president of The American Christian Convention, but not for the Christian Annual.

During the past year the Mid-west Christian Convention, including the States of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, and Kentucky has been organized. This places the entire church in five territorial conventions: New England, Southern, Metropolitan, Mid-western, and Western Christian Conventions. Each State has its state association and the territory within each State has its several district conferences.

The Forward Movement of the church has occupied its attention in a five point program during the year. The financial goal has been $3,000,000.00. In the Southern Christian Convention the per capita quota has been $70 per member.

A Christian Temple is being erected at Winona Lake, Indiana, to accommodate general meetings of the denomination at this religious center.

During the year the Commission on Christian Unity of the church has sent communications overturing the other denominations of the country in the interest of union.

A system of summer schools has been arranged for the season of 1921 to avoid confliction and rotate a part of the same faculty for all. These will be held at Craigville, Mass.; Virginia Beach, Va.; Defiance, Ohio; Winona Lake, Ind.; Merom, Ind.; and Albany, Mo.

The Educational Board has inaugurated a system of scholarships for ministerial students. In conjunction with the Home Mission Board and the Forward Movement Committee, a special drive is being made to secure candidates for the ministry.

A plan is being put into operation for the installation of Field Secretaries to cover all of the territory of the church. These will be especially trained for their work and periodic conferences held for the development of their efficiency.

The regular Home Mission contributions of the church exceeded all former annual records by eighteen percent. By the addition of the Forward Movement receipts for this department the increase was one hundred and fifty percent.

Special demonstration specialized work has been inaugurated at the University of Illinois, Americanization at Haverhill, Mass., and in the lumbering camps of the Pacific Coast.

The church sent out the largest number of new foreign missionaries in its history during the past year. They were sent to Japan and Porto Rico.

Special effort has been made to perfect the church's system of religious education, co-ordinating its work from the primary department of the Sunday-school on up through the colleges.

A Council of College Presidents is being formed to plan a program for their mutual work and unify their tasks. The first session will be held at Palmer College, Albany, Mo., this spring and annually thereafter. The group is at present in a drive for a million dollars of endowment.

Franklinton Christian College, a school for the negro, has been under the management and faculty of white people until this year. The Afro-Christian Convention has now assumed the responsibility for the institution and members of their own race constitute the faculty. After the first half-year the change promises a great improvement.

The Women's Missionary organizations of the church have been active and successful above all former efforts. No department of the church has created a greater volume of propogandic literature. They have assumed entire responsibility for points in both the Hom and Foreign Mission fields.

Miss Florence Powers

THE readers of this publication will be pleased to see the face of Miss Florence Powers. Many of whom who attended the Conventions at Springfield, and Conneaut, will remember because of her quiet kindly service, her gentle manners, and helpful spirit. She is the daughter of the late O. W. Powers, and has spent ten years in the service of the denomination. Five of these she has been in the Convention office, and the other five she spent in the Mission Rooms, when her father was Secretary for the Department of Home Missions. Perhaps no one in service today is better acquainted with the names, post office addresses, and general work of the ministry than is she, and certainly no one has a wider range of general knowledge of the church she serves. The Convention auditors pay high compliment to her bookkeeping, both in matters of accuracy, and neatness of entry. Her work is not only appreciated for itself, but because of the interest she has in the church she serves.

REV. HERBERT MILTON HAINER
Pastor North Church, New Bedford, Mass

THE WHITE CHURCH

AN old day has passed, a new day has come for our work in New Bedford. The passing of the White Church closes a wonderful period in its history. The days when that beautiful and spacious colonial edifice invited men from labor to worship are gone. The time when the returning whalers made port guided by its spire, and the sea captains responded to the call of its Paul Revere bell is no more. A landmark of New Bedford is passing and an historic spot of the Christian denomination. In 1895 Dwight L. Moody at that time holding services in the White Church said: "I have spoken in many of the most beautiful churches of Europe and America, and this is the most beautiful auditorium I have ever spoken in. It is so simple, so chaste—white and gold—the acoustic properties are perfect."

From the beginning our work in New Bedford was successful. In January 1807, thirteen members of the Hixville church under the leadership of Elder Hix organized the church. The following year a church building was erected on Middle Street. In 1826 most of the colored members withdrew and organized the African Christian, later known as the Third Christian church. This continued until 1859. In 1828 a few who were dissatisfied with instrumental music in the church withdrew and organized a new church which met in a near-by hall. The original church grew so rapidly that in 1833 the White Church, with a seating capacity of 1500, was erected. At this time the population of New Bedford was a little over 7,000. The old building on Middle Street was now used by those who had formed a new church in 1828 and later became known as the Middle Street Christian Church. In 1851-1852 the Bonney Street or South Christian church was erected in the southern part of the city. This church, while never large, performed a worthy service until a few years before the consolidation of the Christian churches in New Bedford, when is was crippled by immigrants of the Roman Catholic and Jewish faiths settling around it. In 1859 the Spruce Street work was started as a mission Sunday-school. It later became a mission church of the North Christian (White) Church, and in 1886, during the pastorate of Rev. W. H. Hainer, D. D., now of Irvington, N. J., became an independent organization. The Spruce Street building is about one mile from the center of the city. A Sunday-school and Junior Christian Endeavor Society are now conducted there.

In 1911, under the leadership of Dr. F. H. Peters, then pastor of the White Church, the four Christian churches in the city were consolidated and the old White Church on Purchase Street, now the business center of the city, used as the place of worship. In January, 1920, this property was sold for $105,000. Impressive farewell services were held on Sunday, May 2, at which two former pastors, Dr. S. Wright Butler and Dr. F. H. Peters, were present. At an afternoon service greetings were brought from a number of the local churches.

The old Middle Street building has been repaired at cost, slightly exceeding $23,000. It has been made as attractive and comfortable as possible. It is one of the most delightful church buildings in the city. It is located across from the post office and two blocks from the old White Church. Re-opening services were held June 13, at which Dr. J. F. Burnett spoke. The stay here is not permanent as it is the plan to sell this building and erect a thoroughly modern church plant. So the church is now worshiping in the ancient building erected in 1808. Instead of looking out upon a small village it is now in the heart of a city of 125,000 population, largely Roman Catholic, and a city that is growing very rapidly. It looks forward with the hope of exerting an increasing influence upon the life of New Bedford.

REV. JOHN TAMKIN

JOHN TAMKIN, was born in Waltham Abbey, a contiguous village of London, England, July 1, 1832. When he reached the required age for entering school, he attended a school of the British and Foreign Society, of the village, until he was fourteen years old, when he entered Lady Huntingdon College, at Cheshunt, England. He remained a student in that institution for several years during which time he entered into competition for a prize offered by Mr. I. M. Peto, then a member of the English Parliament. The age limit of the contestants was fixed at eighteen years and under. Three prizes were offered, but when the essays came in there being upwards of nine hundred contestants, it was decided to give fifty instead of three. Mr. Tamkin won the thirty-sixth one, and it was given him by Queen Victoria, in Exeter Hall London. Of all the interesting and remarkable events of his long and eventful life, this one holds first place in his memory. Upon leaving college he entered upon a business career in which he continued until the Crimean war. His father was in the government service and was ordered to Russia. His name and his father's were the same, and when he learned of the order, he rushed to the enrolling office and answered to the name, and was accepted and sent to Russia where he engaged with all the patriotism of his young life in defense of his Queen and country. During the battle of Inkerman, he was seriously wounded from which he was long in recovering, but when sufficiently recovered he was returned to England. He came to America in 1855 and took up the work of teaching school, which profession he followed for nearly sixty years, during part of the time preaching as well. He entered the ministry of the Christian Church in 1867, and was ordained by Elders A. J. Kibble, A Dofflemyer, and ——— Casper. He served long and well as Secretary of the West Virginia Christian Conference. He was a soldier in the Civil War, and was wounded at the battle of Gettysburg on July 1, 1863, the anniversary of his birth, and fifty years afterward, July 1, 1913, at the Union of the Blue and the Grey, he preached the sermon of the occasion, near the place where he was when wounded. His ministerial life has been fruitful, having received hundreds to fellowship in the Church, and assisted at the ordination of twenty-nine ministers, some of whom had been pupils in his school, and converts under his ministry. He is now in his eighty-ninth year, and lives at Clarksburg, West Virginia, and is still able to do a little work for his Master, for which he is glad and grateful.

DEFIANCE SUMMER SCHOOL FOR RURAL PASTORS

The Home Mission Boards of several denominations planned for Summer Schools for rural pastors, one of which was held at Defiance College. Some of the denominations paid a large part of the expenses of their ministers who attended. Practical courses were given by a faculty made up of selected professors from some of the best known divinity schools in the country.

EDWARD KNAPP McCORD

REV. EDWARD KNAPP McCORD

A sketch and appreciation read at the funeral services by J. F. Burnett.

REND your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn;" "Know ye not that there is a prince, and a great man fallen this day in Israel?" and that great man is Rev. E. K. McCord, who was born and bred on a farm, and by so much was prepared for the strenuous life which he chose to live.

Edward Knapp McCord was born October 28, 1870, at Wallkill, New York, and to him was given the right to be born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, but of God, which right he accepted at the age of seventeen years, and was baptized by Rev. Alva H. Morrill. He attended the common schools of his boyhood home, and later the high school at Newbury, New York. His collegiate training was in what was then Starkey Seminary, Eddytown, New York, now Palmer Institute and Starkey Seminary, Lakemont, New York. He also spent one year in the Christian Biblical Institute. He was married to Miss Edith P., daughter of Rev. D. E. and Rachel Powell, June 29, 1897. To this union one son and one daughter were born, who, with their mother, survive him. He was a lover husband, and a companion father, and so thoroughly did he put his life into that of his wife and children, that they four became one.

He was ordained to the ministry of the Word in the Christian Church, by the New York Southern Christian Conference, in 1895, and soon thereafter entered upon his pastoral duties, which were as follows: Binghamton, New York, from April, 1895, to December, 1898. Wolfeboro, N. H., from February, 1899, to December of the same year, from which place he took his departure for Japan.

He and his wife were placed under appointment by the Mission Board of the Christian Church, in October, 1899, and assigned to work in Japan. The outgoing service was held in the First Christian Church, Dayton, Ohio, at which it was the privilege of the writer to speak on the subject of "Holding the Ropes." They sailed for Japan, from San Francisco, January 24, 1900, and reached Tokyo the following month.

Their first furlough found them in South Westerlo, New York, February 6, 1908, and after three years, which were spent in visiting churches in the interest of missions, they returned to Japan, early in January, 1911.

His second furlough found them in the land of their birth, July 17, 1917, which ended for Doctor McCord, on Monday evening, April 26, 1920, when he went, not back to the land of the cherry blossom, but to the land where the rose of Sharon fills the land with beauty, and ladens the air with the perfume of heavenly love, for on that day

"He heard the voice of Jesus say
Come unto Me and rest,
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Thy head upon My breast.

"He went to Jesus and he drank
Of that life-giving stream,
His thirst was quenched, his soul revived,
And now he lives with Him."

He was not only a missionary, home on furlough, but he was Acting Secretary for the Department of Foreign Missions of the Christian Church, and

Editor of The Christian Missionary, which offices he held at the time of his death, both of which bear the unmistakable impress of painstaking efficiency.

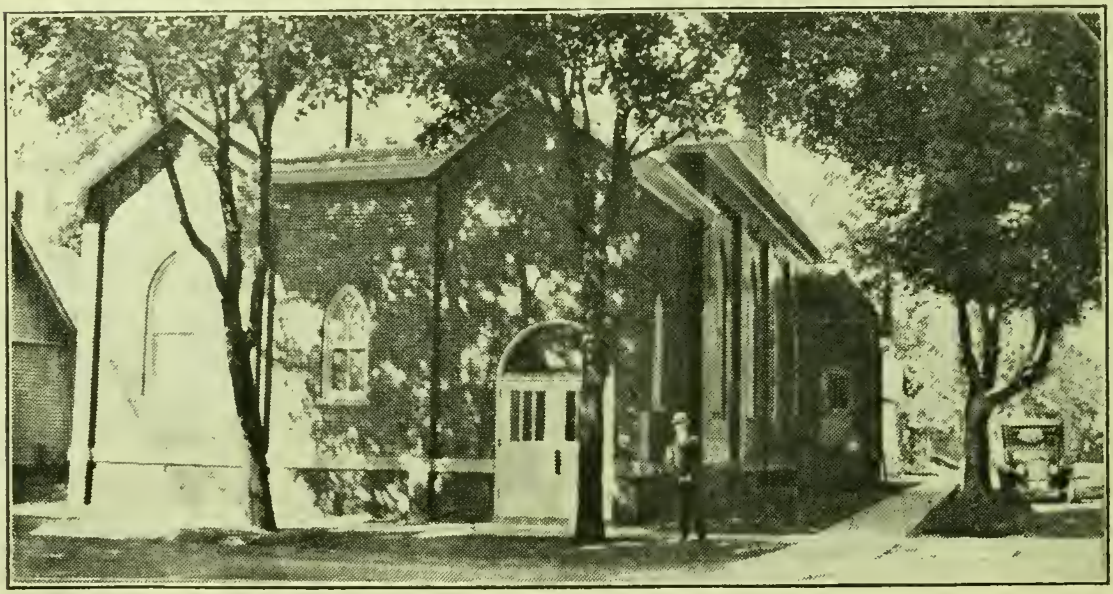
His heart was in Japan, and he longed for the time to come when he might again take up the work of preaching Christ to the hungry souls of the Flowery Kingdom. Not more than one hour before he was stricken, he was in my office, and in conversing with him about Foreign Missions, I asked him if he ever hungered for the land and work to which he had been called. Perhaps the last words he ever spoke to me were his reply:

"I am homesick today for Japan; I am really blue with a desire to return and take up my work."

The few historic items here recorded do in no adequate way represent the splendid life and varied activities of the one we mourn. A life like his cannot be pressed into historic statements. The noble thoughts, the fine poetry, the lofty aspirations, the sweet charity, the kindly friendship, and the infinite possibilities of a life like his, will not yield to classification, nor to historic accuracy. In a word it may be said, that in all the fields of his activity he wrought right mightily.

As we think of him in the light of the life he lived, we say:

"O ye whose cheek the tear of pity stains,
Draw near with pious rev'rence and attend!
Here lie the loving husband's dear remains,
The tender father, and the gen'rous friend;
The pitying heart that felt for human woe,
The dauntless heart that fear'd no human pride;
The friend of men—to vice alone a foe;
For ev'n his failings lean'd to virtue's side."



Christian Church, North Manchester, Indiana

Eel River Conference. Remodeled and rededicated under the pastoral care of Rev. J. J. Beiseigel, September 19, 1920, Rev. J. F. Burnett officiating. The Christian Church at North Manchester was organized in the Lutheran Church of the village, on February 15, 1884, by Elders George Abbott, James Atchison, David Hidy, and Peter Winebrenner. Soon after the organization a substantial brick house was erected, and dedicated by Elder A. W. Coan, then Editor of The Herald of Gospel Liberty. This building had in no sense decayed, and was utilized in the architectural designs in such a way to make it a part of the new. About $10,000 had been expended in the improvements.

THE CHURCH AT LIMA, OHIO

Rev. E. A. Watkins, D. D.

The Christian Church in Lima, Ohio, was organized by Rev. G. B. Garner, D. D., in 1902. A previous canvass made by Doctor Garner revealed that about seven hundred persons belonging to the churches of the Northwestern, and other Christian Conferences, were living in the city. These he rallied, and with the coming of others, was able to make a beginning which developed into one of the strongest and best organized churches of the denomination. The building was dedicated July 9, 1905, during the pastoral service of Rev. S. S. Newhouse, D. D. From the first the church had to struggle with a debt. Repeatedly efforts were made to liquidate the obligations, but shrinkage in subscriptions, the payment of interest, and the ever increasing demand for funds, made the efforts of no avail. At the beginning of the conference year, September, 1920, there was more than fifty-three hundred dollars standing against the church, much of which had been of long standing. To the task of raising this sum of money Rev. E. A. Watkins, D. D., pastor of the church, set himself with a courage and devotion like that of his Master, when he set His face steadfastly to go to Jerusalem. He secured from outside sources $2,500.00, and a personal canvass of the membersnip soon secured the remainder, and before Christmas Day, 1920, every cent of indebtedness was paid. On Sunday, January 2, amid the exultant praise of the congregation, the pastor explained the circumstances of the occasion, and after a prayer of thanksgiving and while the congregation was singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," he applied a match to the notes, and the evidence of indebtedness went up in flame. Rev. Garner and Rev. J. F. Burnett both had part in the service.

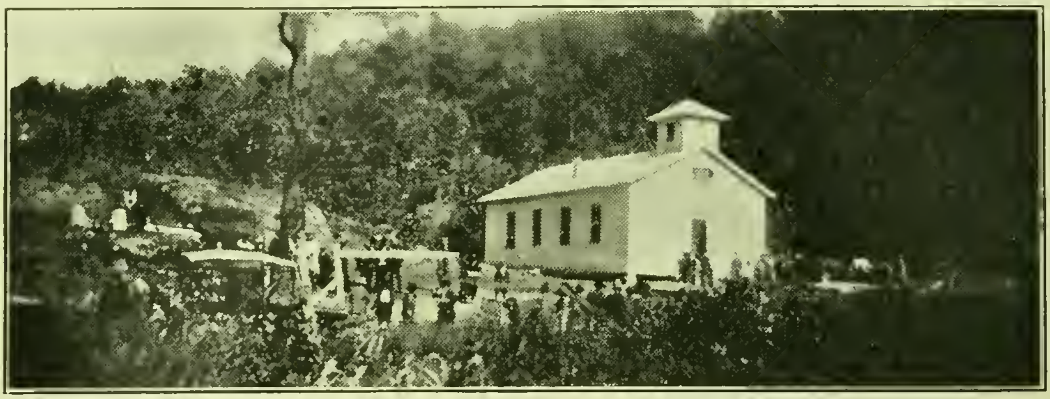
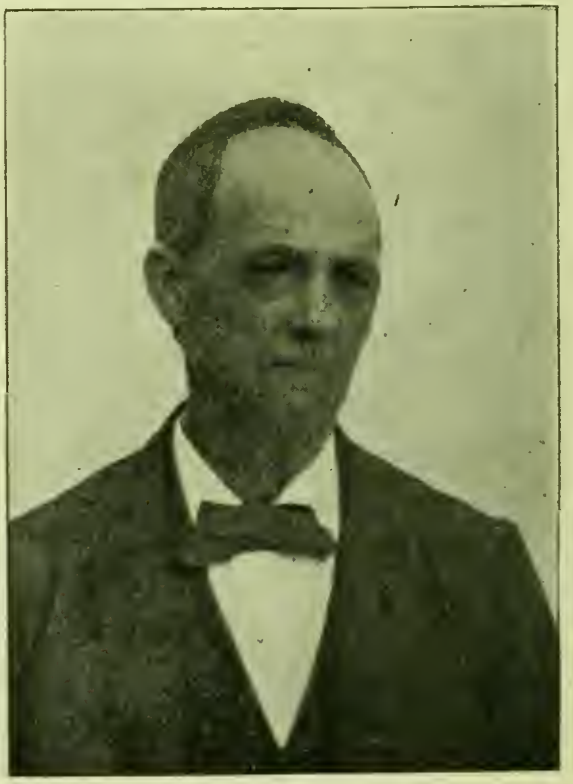
DOWN IN KENTUCKY



The Robert Gee Memorial Christian Church
Fontana, Kentucky
Kentucky State Christian Conference. District No. 2. Dedicated October 3, 1920, Rev. Henry Crampton, officiating.

ROBERT GEE'S grandfather, John W. James, organized the Barretts Creek Christian Church, September 3, 1803. It was represented in the first session of the Kentucky Conference, which met in 1804. His grandfather was present at the Conference held in the "Old" Lebanon Church, Surry County, Virginia, in 1794, when all human names were rejected, and the name Christian accepted. His grandson, Robert Gee, united with the Barretts Creek Christian Church, October 17, 1857, and was elected clerk in 1871, which office he still holds. He was ordained a minister of the gospel in the Christian Church, October 22, 1877, at Cora Hill, Kentucky, by Elders M. L. Maddix, H. L. Forest, and B. F. Boling. He served in the Middle Kentucky Christian Conference as Secretary from 1871 to 1890, when he was elected Secretary of the Kentucky State Christian Conference, which office he yet holds. For many, many years he had it in his heart to build a meetinghouse on the site of the old organization, which hope he realized during the last year:

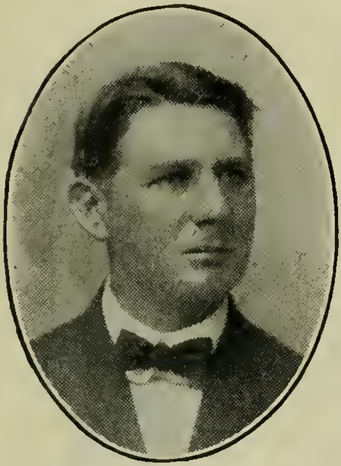


Rev. Robert Gee

He says:

The crowning act of my life was the erection of the Robert Gee Memorial Christian Church for the old Barretts Creek Christian Church, which was never able to erect a building, having had the same in contemplation for more than fifty years, and it was dedicated to the Lord on October 3, 1920, by Rev. Henry Crampton, and it was the happiest day of my life.

IN PORTO RICO AND JAPAN



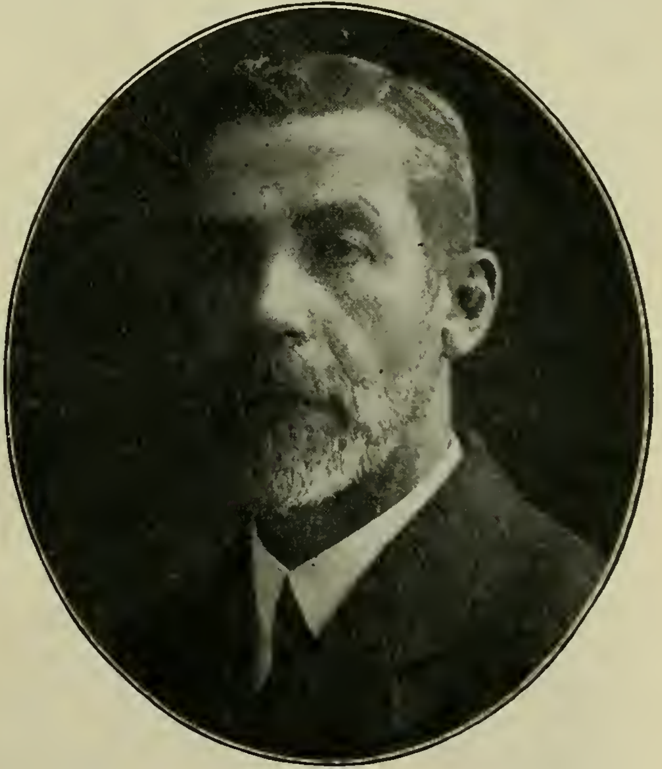
Rev. D. P. Barrett

Mrs. D. P. Barrett

Rev D. P. Barrett and family are now in the United States on a brief furlough from their arduous tasks as missionaries in Porto Rico. Their temporary home while in the States, is at Elon College, N. C. Two of their daughters are to remain in the States, and have already entered Elon College for the regular College course. Rev and Mrs. Barrett have been doing missionary work in Porto Rico since January, 1901, and have merited the praise and earned the confidence of the entire church, for their faithful service in the line of their self- accepted duties. They are to return to Porto Rico some time in February, 1921.

In July of this year Rev. C. P. Garman, of Tokyo, Japan, made a flying trip to America to arrange for the further stay of his family here, they having come home some months previous owing to the sickness of their son, Phillips. Brother Garman also attended the special meeting of the Mission Board in August and after locating his family for the winter at Saranac Lake, N. Y., he returned to his work, arriving at Yokohama, October 4. He will return to America next spring for his regular furlough. Rev. Mr. Garman's appointment to Japan bears date of October 13, 1905.

Rev. C. P. Garman



Rev. E. C. Fry

Rev. E. C. Fry, of our Utsunomiya field in Japan, came home with Brother Garman in July to spend his furlough, which was already overdue. Owing to inability at the time to secure a passport for their adopted Japanese son, Maki, Mrs. Fry was not able to come. Since then, however, the passport has been granted and Mrs. Fry and Maki will come in the early spring, for a six months stay. Brother Fry first visited his aged mother in Oregon, a brother in California, and a daughter and another brother in the East, the latter passing away a few weeks later. During the winter Brother Fry will continue to do some deputation work and will also attend some of the lectures at an eastern university. He plans to return to Japan with Mrs. Fry and Maki in the fall of 1921.

Rev. Mr. Fry's appointment to Japan bears date of July 19, 1894.

IN MEMORIAM

Man, that is born of a woman, is of few days, and full of trouble.

He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months is with thee, and thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;

As the waters fail from the sea, and the river wasteth and drieth up;

So man lieth down and riseth not: till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be roused out of their sleep.

Verily, Verily, I say unto you, The hour cometh, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live.

ORDINATIONS

"If thou put the brethren in mind of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which thou hast followed until now. These things command and teach. Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an ensample to them that believe, in word, in manner of life, in love, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give heed to reading, to exhortation, to teaching. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Be diligent in these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy progress may be manifest unto all. Take heed to thyself, and to thy teaching. Continue in these things; for in doing this thou shalt save both thyself and them that hear thee."

Denominational Objectives and Appeal

The Committee on Denominational Objectives and Appeal makes the following report:

Committee—F. G. Coffin, J. O. Atkinson, W. G. Sargent, O. S. Thomas, J. F. Burnett.

That the present is unusual, disturbed, and uncertain none will question. Though it may create apprehension in some, to many it will appeal as a great opportunity challenging their best effort. However we may differ as to the significance of these days we are unanimous that their unprecedented character demands the most forceful Christian activity of which we are capable and, at the same time, thrusts upon us the unavoidable alternative of failure.

Perhaps, in the nature of the case, no church has greater responsibility for these times than our own. Our liberality in fellowship, mobility of program, and latitude for many sincere faiths to work together without denominational disintegration—all mortgage our total resources to meet the world's present needs. We must make an exceeding effort in behalf of a complete unity and rehabilitation of a sundered world. The Christian Church has a mission as distinctive as in its beginning and more nearly possible of fulfillment.

If conditions are unusual they are not hopeless but they do demand unusual Christians. The Christian can no more limit his service and gifts to the measure of the past, even though it was a good one, than he can confine his expenses to the same date. The determining test for ourselves and the organization which we represent is whether we can enlarge to meet the new needs. There must be an enlarged service or a functionless church. No one has a right to Christian satisfaction, except in and through Christian service, and who would be strong enough to help his fellows must guard his own health and develop his own muscles.

To accomplish what is before us the Joint Boards and the Board of Polity of the Christian Church find that the following features of our denominational objective and program should be especially stressed during the year 1921:

1. Fundamental to any attainment of our beloved church must be the cultivation of efforts to plan and work together in order that there may be a solid denominational impact behind all of our efforts. We must unite for our projects, synchronize our plans and build our sectional programs either out of or into our general denominational program. Each convention, conference, church, and auxiliary society should adopt as a minimum of attainment the standards and plans of work of The American Christian Convention and its several departments. Territorial efforts should be in addition to these. The stronger convention, conference, and church should assist the weaker wherever possible.

2. The Forward Movement is the outstanding work of our church. Into this our unlimited energies must now be put. Every section of our territory where it has not already been done, should, without further delay, put on the full Forward Movement program. Important as it is, no mere financial campaign can supply the need of the church. If only filled treasuries result from this Movement, we will have failed. The other four points are equally important. These five objectives are of such character that they can only be realized by each member accepting a definite responsibility for their accomplishment.

3. Inasmuch as one-fifth of the financial goal of the Forward Movement is to be secured through the regular offerings for the general benevolences of the church, our people should be especially diligent and generous in these offerings. Unless our churches make a larger response to these departmental calls we will not reach the goal in this item.

4. A most pungent need of our church today, in common with all other churches, is a larger force of workers. Many of our churches are without preaching because preachers are not available. We call upon all agencies of our church to see that the need and opportunity for life recruits are frequently emphasized. This supreme use of life should be kept constantly before childhood and youth in the home, Sunday School, Junior and Young People's Societies of Christian Endeavor, colleges, and elsewhere as frequently as opportunity permits. Its appeal should be often voiced in public discourse.

5. We urge our people to take into account the increased strain which the changed times have put upon the slender resources of our colleges and enlarge their support accordingly. The importance of these institutions to our denominational future was never greater than now, yet the support formerly given is not adequate for present financing.

6. Summer Schools of Religious Education are now so well distributed among us geographically that their benefit is within the reach of all. They make an inestimable contribution to efficiency in both pew and pulpit and are centers of as fine fellowship as our church affords. We urge our ministers and people to attend such schools each year. We also suggest that our church and conference boards give thorough consideration to the value of annual Church Efficiency Institutes. These may be held by single churches or in groups. In such institutes their field may be studied and analyzed, the church resources surveyed, weaknesses discovered and remedied, and training given in the official tasks of the church.

7. Our church periodicals are indispensable to the prosecution of our denominational mission, yet their struggle for existence has never been greater. The pressure of this situation, caused by inflation of production prices, is unavoidable by those who have our publications in charge. There can be but one adjustment—our support must equal our need. The year 1821 should include an every member drive in every church for subscriptions to our church periodicals. The results of an increased subscription list will be, more loyalty to the local church, a strengthened denominational unity and fellowship, and an increased support of the church's enterprises, besides much blessing to individual lives.

8. The post-war period increases our missionary obligations. Our foreign force and equipment should be greatly augmented. The alien inrush to America has resumed. Our Home Mission increase must equal the same ratio as our population. This will be possible only when our people have sensed the present strategy of missions and instituted an adequate program of education and maintenance in their churches.

9. Our church programs have been inadequate in the conservation of our youth, therefore our young people's organizations have been less vigorous than they might have been. We call upon our people to carefully re-analyze their whole church program having in mind the conservation of the young for the future church, and to make such revisions as will better serve this end.

10. An adequate program of evangelism should be placed well to the fore in the year's program. It will be stimulating to remember that the periods of most marked growth in the Christian Church are those in which evangelism received her greatest emphasis. The training for and promotion of evangelism by individuals, churches, and all church organizations should have the largest possible place in the plans of the church.

11. Nothing is more outstanding and significant in modern religious movements than the efforts of the various denominations toward union, federation, and cooperation. It is also inevitable that this tendency will increase. Christian Churches should not omit from their message an endorsement of this new spirit of fellowship and should freely give their best efforts in the interest of the oneness of all of God's people. We urge that, so far as strictures of conscience do not prevent, they keep in understanding and cooperative touch with such interdenominational gatherings and movements.

12. For these several outstanding tasks, and many more unmentioned, we are altogether unequal. Let us therefore, everywhere, seek more largely that strength and guidance which alone is adequate. However trite its statement may seem to be, nothing can be more important than those practices of devotion which bring us near to God, give us an understanding of Him and His will and assure the continued blessing of divine strength. "Pray without ceasing and in everything give thanks."

FORWARD TOGETHER

As we stand at the threshold of the new year, we shall pause and "be at ease" for a moment, to get breath and renewed strength for the Advance Together that we are about to resume.

In this moment's pause we involuntarily cast a hasty glance over the course just ended.

A backward look is pardonable only when it serves as a stimulus to larger things in the future.

Just a little way behind us we see many of the goal posts set one year ago, which we have had the joy of passing.

Sometimes we say that nothing so stimulates as success. This being true, for us there is great incentive to future striving in the goals that we have reached and passed.

Again we are told that our goals should always be beyond our power of attainment in order to avoid the undesirable reaction that comes sometimes when an aim has been reached. Failure to reach our goal in a few instances this year, saves us from that possible reaction.

Practically, our two boards are one, working as two departments. Our Financial Goal for the year was $25,000.00. This goal we reached and passed. Giving God the glory for our success, and desiring to give Him a larger place in our lives in the year to come, we have set our financial goal for the new year FORWARD to $30,000.00.

This $25,000.00 of consecrated money has supported, as formerly, the Japanese work in the Sendai field in addition to many other gifts to the Japanese field. It has supplied good literature to the women and children of the Orient. It has made its way to Porto Rico to assist Miss Williams in carrying on her industrial work there. Through the especial efforts of our Young People the fund for our Santa Isabel Chapel has been completed, and through their endeavors, too, the young people of Franklinton Christian College have been given a better opportunity for learning through the teachers our offerings have provided.

Lots and buildings are being furnished for the fields in Porto Rico and Japan as well as equipment for our work in America, through Thank Offerings of our people.

The new heating plant that has been installed at Franklinton is especially gratifying, as it adds so greatly to the comfort and the usefulness of our students there. Our support to the work in the lumber camps and in the additional fields in Washington and Wyoming has been continued, and aid has been given to Christian Americanization through work with the foreign speaking peoples in some of our cities.

We have contributed to an interdenominational mission to the women and children working in fruit picking and canning industries in New Jersey and Delaware. We have assisted in the purchase of The Mission Home at Winona Lake, an interdenominational enterprise.

Together, the Boards sent representatives to twelve State Conferences of the Interchurch World Movement and received great benefit from this contact with that great interdenominational agency.

Representatives were also sent to the School of Missions at Winona Lake, and the one at Wilson College, and at Chautauqua, N. Y.

Board representatives were sent to fifteen different Conferences at their annual sessions, to present the plans and purposes of our Board leaders, and to give methods and working materials.

This visitation proved very helpful to the Boards in their attempt to build a program of service utilizing the powers and capabilities of our own women.

The response to the call for Mission Study has been most encouraging.

The number of pledged intercessors has grown to more than twelve hundred.

Sorrows and disappointments came in the midst of our joys and victories. One of our best loved and trusted leaders—visible—Rev. E. K. McCord—preceded us to join the hosts of those leaders invisible who must ever be our inspiration. Gaining new courage from the lives of these victorious ones we shall continue through the year into which we are just entering to go FORWARD TOGETHER.

CONFERENCE DEPARTMENT

[NOTICE:—In the Conference Department, where the church or the Sunday-school, or Christian Endeavor Society is not reported by the Conference Secretary, we have taken it as evidence that there were none to report, except in such cases where we were fully assured that only temporarily inactivity existed. When Sunday-schools and Christian Endeavor Societies were not reported as making offerings to these departments, it was taken for granted that no offering had been made. The four offerings—Convention, Home Missions, Foreign Missions, and Education—are reported from the Convention records, except those reported by Conference Secretaries.]

Rev. J. O. Atkinson, Elon College, N. C.—Vice-President.
Rev. I. W. Johnson, Suffolk, Va.—Secretary.
Rev. J. F. Morgan, Berkley, Norfolk, Va.—Assistant Secretary.
Rev. W. C. Wicker, Elon College, N. C.—Treasurer.

Territory—The Southern Christian Convention is composed of the following conferences: Virginia Valley Central Conference, A. W. Andes, Harrisonburg, Va., Secretary; Georgia and Alabama Conference, J. F. Hill, Jr., Phoenix, Ala., Secretary; Alabama Conference, E. M. Carter, Wadley, Ala., secretary; Eastern Virginia Conference, Rev. I. W. Johnson, Suffolk, Va., Secretary; North Carolina Christian Conference, J. A. Dickey, Elon College, N. C., Secretary.

In accordance with the Convention recommendations, all the conferences have organized local Conference Missionary Associations. These associations have been officered in the manner of the Convention Association. By the plans thus inaugurated the funds for home missions will be greatly increased. As regards foreign missions, there is a steady growth of interest. A special call was made upon the conferences for missions at the late session of the Convention.

The Convention met in Raleigh, N. C., in May, 1920.

The most recent forward step of the Convention is the election of Dr. J. O. Atkinson Field Secretary of Missions in the Convention. One hundred twenty-five thousand dollars have already been subscribed and more than $40,000.00 paid in for this fund, to be divided equally for Home and Foreign Missions.

The Convention successfully developed and completed the Men and Millions Forward Movement Campaign during the year 1920, which will mean much for the progress of our cause in the Southern Christian Convention during the next five years.

This Convention also supports the Christian Orphanage, located at Elon College, N. C., The Christian Sun, and Elon College, all owned by the Convention.

AN INDEPENDENT CHURCH CO-OPERATING WITH THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN CONVENTION

Peoples Christian Church, Milford, N. J.

This church has, for the past several years, been co-operating with The American Christian Convention, and has won for itself a degree of loyalty and liberality that is commendable indeed. The pastor is Rev. B. F. Hoagland, Upper Black Eddy, Pa. The clerk is Spencer B. Garrett, Milford, N. J. During the past year it has made contributions as follows:

American Christian Convention	$ 9.00
Education	13.00

It has a Sunday-school with graded classes and a Home Department, and uses The Christian Publishing Association literature exclusively. The superintendent is Charles G. Melick, Milford, N. J.

Summing Up

The following statistics reveal a distressing condition in the church we love. Three hundred and one pastorless churches. In almost every one of our conferences, and in all parts of our Zion, there are vacant pulpits, unused houses, and idle people. The churches were organized by those who had given themselves to the Lord, and the buildings were erected in sacrificial hope, and dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, and His Son Jesus Christ, by as devout and worthy people as the world ever knew. These buildings were once occupied by congregations of men and women, willing, and often anxious, to hear the story of the cross. During the hour of worship every wave of the atmosphere quivered with the breath of prayer and praise, and the building itself was vocal with a voice of thanksgiving. The preacher might have been an uneducated man, but he was mighty in the Scriptures; untrained in the art of public speaking, but always a man called of God, and devoted to the task of winning souls for his Master. Responsibility for such condition is not easily fixed. There may have been a zeal that was not according to knowledge; there may have been captious criticism; there may have preachers who were not called of God—men who were better at pruning grape vines, than human lives; there may have been autocratic preachers—preachers who could not, or would not, stoop to the level of the common stock; there may have been a covetousness that froze the currents of benevolence; there may have been personal sins that sapped the spiritual life of the individuals; there may have been a substitution of lecture for sermon; club for church; preparation for qualification; the call of salary for the call of the people; education for consecration; banquet for benevolence; money for men; good behavior for penitence and prayer; but whatever the cause may have been, the fact is before us, and there is a deathlike silence everywhere, and an odor of decay from amidst the dilapidated buildings, and the weakened moral life of the community.

For convenience and ready reference we list the names of the church clerks:

MINISTERIAL DIRECTORY

This ministerial directory has been carefully compared with, and corrected by the roll of ministers furnished by the Conference Secretaries.

Some Conference Secretaries sent the roll of 1920, and the directory contains it as given. Where no report was made the names of the ministers appear without conference relation. The Clergy Bureau requires the evidence of a Church publication to establish the claim of an applicant for reduction in railroad fares. Such evidence has been recorded as verified by the conference reports.

The Growing Beauty of The Church

Throughout the ages, from the remote past until the present day, history shows that Art Glass Windows have been considered a highly desirable and important part of church and cathedral decoration. Furthermore, it may be said without contradiction, that the whole aspect and interior of any religious edifice is largely contingent upon the character of its windows.

With this thought in mind, we have prepared a valuable little brochure entitled "The Crowning Beauty of the Church" which discusses the subject in a very comprehensive way. Rather than a mere catalog of designs, it illustrates fragments of celebrated windows found in some of the old cathedrals of France and England, together with modern art windows in which these designs, centuries old, have been used in edifices of our own building.

Any one interested in beautiful churches, whether pastor, member of some building committee, architect or contractor, should possess a copy of this splendid treatise. It will be sent to you free for the asking, without any obligation whatever. Merely mention The Christian Annual.

Mr. H. T. LePage,
Toronto, Ont., Canada,
My Dear Mr. LePage:

I take this occasion to write you about the style 16 cups, and indeed our whole Communion Set. After nearly a year's use we are more than ever pleased with it. I have visited several places where the flat top cup and Aluminum trays are in use and have just wished that the kind we have could be substituted for them! Ours are just a joy to us and I wish I could induce all to buy this kind. The glasses are much prettier and easier to handle and to drink from.

Yours cordially,

Rev. Bernard P. Smith, Pastor, Christian Church,
Kinston, N. Car., U. S. A.

To Our Patrons

THE Christian Annual is recognized as an invaluable advertising medium: consequently a number of pages in the present edition have been devoted to advertisements of special interest to all in need of supplies and material used in furnishing churches. Only advertisements of reliable firms have been admitted. Patranize the advertisers and when writing to any of them mention The Christian Annual as your source of information. By doing this you will not only favor the advertiser, but your Publication House as well. It is only when advertisers realize that their advertisements are bringing returns that they feel justified in renewing.
